

Nina Dulleck

Miep, der Außerirdische (Bd. 1)

Meep the Alien (Vol. 1)

no. 8519, colour illustrations throughout by the author, 80 pages, September 2016, 5+

Please ask for full English translation.

All rights available.

A new series from Germany's currently most successful children's illustrator, Nina Dulleck!

- Short texts and large, wonderfully weird illustrations
- Fun, imaginative stories for the whole family
- Ideal for reading independently or reading aloud with younger ones
- Humorous and exciting adventures in Outer Space!
- Perfect motivation for Early Readers

Miep is traipsing through the Astro Museum, feeling very bored, when suddenly a pastatid named Noodle leaps into his arms! Miep has always wanted a little space-pet like Noodle. And he soon finds himself plunged into an exciting adventure – not only does he have to persuade his dad to let him keep Noodle, he also has to protect his newfound friend from the museum attendants and curious human astronauts. It's the beginning of a beautiful extraterrestrial friendship...

Nina Dulleck
Miep – Eine Krakete zum Geburtstag
Meep and the Rocketopus (Vol. 2)
no. 8520, colour illustrations throughout by the author, 80 pages, March 2017, 5+

All rights available.

Meep is delighted when Grandma Zoing buys him a rocketopus for his birthday. In great excitement, he and Noodle set out on a test flight across the galaxy. Meep has everything under control – until he suddenly realises that Grandma Zoing has forgotten to fill up the rocketopus's fuel tank! But Meep knows they will be able to find what they need on the blue planet, so they steer a course for Planet Earth and touch down in search of fuel...