Girls Resist!

A Guide to Activism, Leadership, and Starting a Revolution

by KaeLyn Rich

Girls Resist! is a stylish, relevant, timely activism handbook that speaks to teen girl readers like the intelligent and passionate people they are. In this age of political teen bloggers and young adult celebrities frankly discussing topics like sexism and racism, young women are more engaged, excited, and fired up than ever—but they also need guidance.

Globally-relevant topics not tied to any one country’s political system will include picking a cause, fundraising, networking, and protesting. Plenty of space will be devoted to teen-specific topics like having tough talks with unsupportive family members, campaigning for representatives when you’re too young to vote, and best practices for being effective (and safe!) while raising awareness on social media. Plus, an attractive design will make this as much a self-purchase as a gift, fitting perfectly between magazines and YA novels on a teen girl’s shelf.

KAELYN RICH is a staff writer for popular queer women’s website Autostraddle.com. A queer feminist, direct action organizer, and sexuality educator, she is the Assistant Advocacy Director of the American Civil Liberties Union of New York and the former community affairs coordinator for Planned Parenthood of Central and Western New York. She lives with her spouse, their new baby, and a house full of pets.

Female Friendships That Changed History

By Sam Maggs

A modern girl is nothing without her squad of best friends. But don't let all the hashtags fool you: the #girlsquad goes back a long, long time. In this hilarious and heartfelt book, geek girl Sam Maggs takes you on a tour of some of history's most famous female BFFs, including:

- Anne Bonny and Mary Read, the infamous lady pirates who sailed the seven seas and plundered with the best of the men
- Jeanne Manon Roland and Sophie Grandchamp, Parisian socialites who landed front-row seats (from prison) to the French Revolution
- The Edinburgh Seven, the band of pals who fought to be the first women admitted to medical school in the United Kingdom
- The Zohra Orchestra, the ensemble from Afghanistan who defied laws, danger, and threats to become the nation's first all-female musical group.

Spanning art, science, politics, activism, and even sports, these girl squads show just how essential female friendship has been throughout history and throughout the world. Maggs brings her signature wit and warmth as she pays tribute to the enduring power of the girl squad. You may think you know women’s history pretty well. But have you ever heard of. . .

- Alice Ball, the chemist who developed an effective treatment for leprosy—only to have the credit taken by a man?
- Mary Sherman Morgan, the rocket scientist whose liquid fuel compounds blasted the first U.S. satellite into orbit?
- Huang Daopo, the inventor whose weaving technology revolutionized textile production in China—centuries before the cotton gin?

Smart women have always been able to achieve amazing things, even when the odds were stacked against them. In Wonder Women, author Sam Maggs tells the stories of the brilliant, brainy, and totally rad women in history who broke barriers as scientists, engineers, mathematicians, adventurers, and inventors. Plus, interviews with real-life women in STEM careers, an extensive bibliography, and a guide to women-centric science and technology organizations—all to show the many ways the geeky girls of today can help to build the future.

Geekerella

A Novel

by Ashley Poston

Part romance, part love letter to nerd culture, and all totally adorable, Geekerella is a fairy tale for anyone who believes in the magic of fandom. Geek girl Elle Wittimer lives and breathes Starfield, the classic sci-fi series she grew up watching with her late father. So when she sees a cosplay contest for a new Starfield movie, she has to enter. The prize? An invitation to the ExcelsiCon Cosplay Ball, and a meet-and-greet with the actor slated to play Federation Prince Carmindor in the reboot. With savings from her gig at the Magic Pumpkin food truck (and her dad's old costume), Elle's determined to win...unless her stepsisters get there first.

Teen actor Darien Freeman used to live for cons—before he was famous. Now they're nothing but autographs and awkward meet-and-greets. Playing Carmindor is all he's ever wanted, but the Starfield fandom has written him off as just another dumb heartthrob. As ExcelsiCon draws near, Darien feels more and more like a fake—until he meets a girl who shows him otherwise.

ASHLEY POSTON is the author of The Sound of Us and We Own the Night, both published by Bloomsbury Spark.
