

Carles Sala i Vila

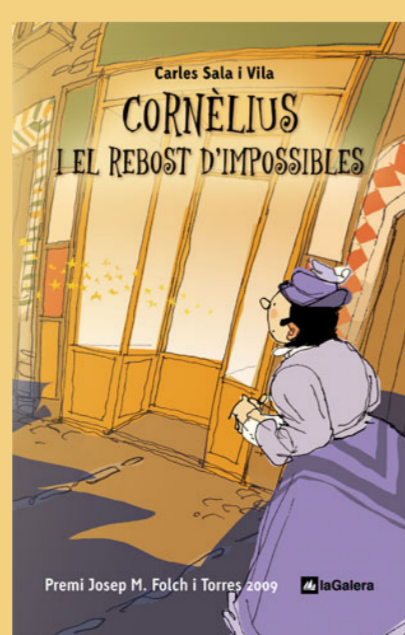

Carles was born in Girona. He worked as a primary school teacher until he decided to leave teaching in order to devote himself to crafts and, most particularly, to writing. Although a very prolific author, all of his works are created with dedication and loving intensity. Many of his books that have won highly significant literary awards, including the Premi Josep M. Folch i Torres, the Premi Barcanova, the Vaixell de Vapor and the Guillem Cifre de Colonya.

Lia's Train and the Stops with no Names

Illustrations by Estrela de Arenzana
La Galera (Catalan) · February 2018
144 pages · 10/11 years

Lia gets on the train on the way to Conchimaba. And nothing is going okay. Her parents have sent her to her auntie's place in the mountains for the holidays. But while she's dwelling in her bad mood, she notices something strange: The station's sign is blank! Surely they will be doing repairs... And then there is this peculiar person who looks just like the bad guy from a movie, travelling with her in the same wagon. Perhaps the journey won't be as boring or as calm as Lia expected. It all begins when at the next stop the sign is also blank...

New Title !

Also available:

I have an Itch on my Neighbour's Nose
Takataka, 2017
sold to Catalan and Spanish World, China

Cornélius and the Store of Impossibilities
La Galera, 2010
sold to Italy, Brasil, Turkey, Spanish World

UTE
KÖRNER
LITERARY AGENT

Sandra Rodericks
sandra.rodericks@uklitag.com