

THE RIGHT(S) GLASSES

Name: Louise Münzer
Company: NordSüd Verlag

Question #1: Where and when do you read?

I read a lot in the evening in bed or on the balcony, while catching a glimpse of the alps far far away.

Question #2: Which book have you most given as a present?

There is not the one book that I have given several times, as I am always looking for the one book for each reader. That beeing said, I am also privately a big advocate for the children's books of my publishing house and have brought „Heule Eule” by Paul Friester and Philippe Goossens and “Lindbergh” by Torben Kuhlmann to many family visits. From my own childhood I still vivedly remember Samuil Marschak's “Das Katzenhaus” and am beyond happy that it has been reissued last year. A new/ old favourite to give to the little ones of family and friends.

Question #3: What do you remember about your first book fair?

I used to go to the Leipzig Book Fair with my mother a lot when I was younger. I remember beeing excited to see so many books in one place (so many more than in my local library). And I always had this feeling that people who went to book fairs, were some kind of sworn in gang. Years later at my first Frankfurt Book Fair I worked as an intern for Gallimard Jeunesse at the reception and accompanied the licensing agents. At the end of 6 days, after talking with so many people from around the world, I could barely remember what my native language was. But since then, I feel to be part of the gang!

Question #4: Tell us the resolutions you have made for this year.

Finally learn the concept of patience :)

Question #5: Tell us about a bad habit, an obsession or a particular attitude you have picked up since starting to work at NordSüd

I would say it has become an obsession. In my first year with NordSüd I discovered the wonderful work of Swiss artist Celestino Piatti. We had some limited prints with original signatures in the publishing house and I splurged on an extraordinary print of a tiger! The tiger has by now been joined by a cat, an owl and a fish. They all live happily together at my home.
