Sophia and the Corner Park Clubhouse

A sparkingly funny and heartfelt new middle-grade series, for fans of Gilmore Girls and Ann M. Martin's iconic Baby-Sitters Club series.

For Belle, it's an empire.
For Lola, it's a canvas.
For Maisie, it's a refuge.
For Sophia, it is home.

Sophia and her lifelong best friends are reunited at their old favourite hangout – the Corner Park Clubhouse – after their first term at different high schools. But it soon becomes obvious that in spite of pinkie swears and promises, they're drifting apart.

The one thing keeping them together is the clubhouse, which holds special memories for each of them – and after what happened there last summer, it means more than anything to Sophia. So when they find out it's going to be bulldozed, the girls set out in a race against time to save it – and their friendship – from demolition.

Davina Bell

Davina Bell is an award-winning writer for young readers of many ages. She writes picture books (including All the Ways to be Smart and Under the Love Umbrella), junior fiction (Lemonade Jones) and middle-grade fiction (the Corner Park Clubhouse series and the Alice books in the Our Australian Girl series). Davina's debut young-adult novel will be published in 2020. She lives in Melbourne, where she works as a children's book editor.

The Naughtiest Pixie

It's not easy being the only pixie at a human school, especially when you have to keep it a secret – but if anyone can do it, Jenifry Star can!

Jenifry Star is a very loveable, very naughty young pixie who decides to go to human school to make some friends. Everyone knows grown-up humans are terrifying; they hunt pixies, they stomp on their houses and even pickle pixies in jars. But surely human children are perfectly safe? Jenifry is willing to find out! With her infectious sense of humour, knack for mischief and irrepressible charm, Jenifry must figure out the surprising rules of school and human friendship while keeping her pixie side hidden.

With gentle environmental overtones and a generous sprinkle of Faraway Tree magic, this series is a delightful romp in and out of a hidden world for readers aged 6+. You'll never look at your garden in quite the same way again ...

The Brilliant Ideas of Lily Green

DRAFT COVER

A dash of Judy Blume, a spoonful of secrets and a whole lot of fun get mixed up in this big-hearted debut by Ampersand Prize-winning author Lisa Siberry.

Twelve-year-old Lily Green's world is falling apart. Her best friend, Violet, is more interested in the latest shade of lip gloss than hanging out. Her enemy, Zoe, is determined to beat Lily in the school science competition – and win Violet's friendship, too. Worst of all, Lily's precious family beauty salon – the last connection she has to her dad – has hit hard times, and her mum has decided to sell it.

When Lily accidentally mixes up a string of wild and wonderful beauty products from the mysterious plants in her neighbour's garden, she thinks she's found the perfect way to save the salon – and get her best friend back. But are her inventions as beautiful as she thinks? And when things start turning ... ugly ... can Lily find the real 'secret ingredient' that will save the salon, seal her friendships, and win the school science competition?

Beautifully written and full of warmth, this captivating middle-grade novel explores family, friendship and the true meaning of beauty.

Everywhere Everything Everyone

DRAFT COVER

A vivid, captivating contemporary YA novel about the power of resistance, from a stunning Australian debut author. Perfect for fans of The Handmaid's Tale and Z for Zachariah.

Even though she lives on the wrong side of town, 16-year-old Santee believes her world is like ours: that running late for curfew will only get you grounded, and that the government tries to keep its good citizens safe and secure. Until suddenly, everything changes.

On her way home from school, Santee takes a detour to the outskirts of town with a boy she likes – and then finds herself stranded overnight when his car breaks down. When she's finally able to get a lift towards home the next morning, Santee discovers that everything has changed. A 'safety border' – a wall – has gone up around her part of town, imprisoning her family and trapping her on the outside ...

With its subtle familiarity and a tender, defiant teen romance at its core, Katy Warner's powerful debut novel is about the importance of hope and standing up for what you believe in.

From small cracks, big cracks grow.

Ottolie Colter and the Master of Monsters

BE LIONS. NOT MICE.

Ottolie Colter is the first girl ever to join the secretive, boys-only Narrowway Hunt – and she's determined that she won't be the last.

The Hunt trains children to kill ruthless monsters known as dredretches, but now it's under threat. Dredretches have invaded Fort Fiory, and no-one is safe – especially not the girls who live there, but aren't allowed to fight.

Ottolie must convince the Hunt to train the girls – but with the dredretches getting worse, talk of witchcraft on the rise, and a mysterious hooded figure in the Narrowways itself, her time is running out ...

The second adventure in a thrilling feminist trilogy about friendship, monsters and having the courage to be a rebel.

Welcome to Your Period

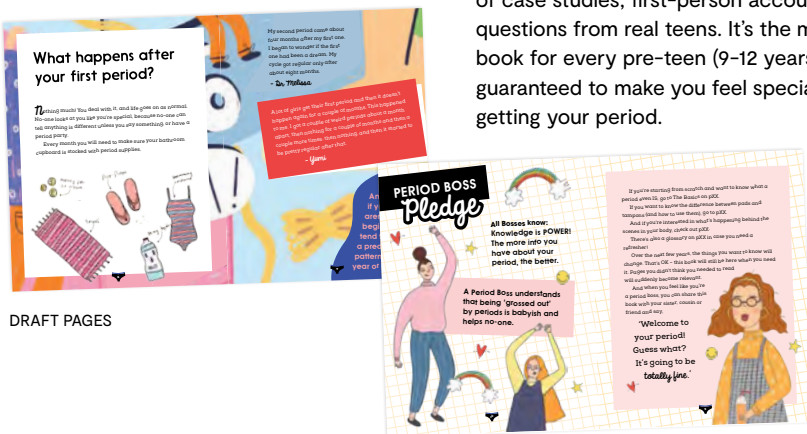

Yumi Stynes & Dr Melissa Kang

A frank, funny, age-appropriate guide for pre-teens about getting your period, from Dr Melissa Kang (former Dolly Doctor) and Yumi Stynes, creator of the hit podcast Ladies, We Need to Talk.

Getting your period for the first time can be mortifying, weird and messy – and asking questions about it can be even worse. But it doesn't have to be like that!

Packed with honest advice on managing Aunt Flo like a boss, Welcome to Your Period will induct pre-teens into the secret society of menstruation: from demystifying what cramps feel like, to whether you can feel it coming out, to what you should do if your pad leaks onto your dress. Alongside Yumi's warm, big-sisterish wisdom and Dr Kang's medical nous, there will also be tons of case studies, first-person accounts and questions from real teens. It's the must-have book for every pre-teen (9-12 years) that is guaranteed to make you feel special about getting your period.

Jedda Robaard

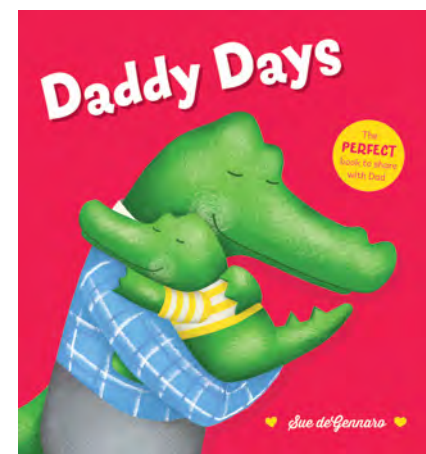

Jedda Robaard is a children's book illustrator and author whose work is well known here, in Australia, and internationally, having been published in many languages, including English, French, Dutch, Greek, Italian and Chinese. Book illustration is an opportunity for Jedda to create little worlds where characters can play, unhindered by society's restrictions. Jedda says, referring to the style of her art, 'The majority of my illustrations have been created simply with pencil and watercolour. They are just puddles of colour if you like. Puddles manipulated into tiny beings with feelings, obligations and agendas.'

The Man With Small Hair

by Jane Jolly & Andrew Joyner

An uplifting story about confidence, bravery and dancing to the beat of your own drum.

The man with small hair loves his small hair. He also loves his short pants, zing-a-ding boots and clickety-clackety beads. He cartwheels with joy and bursts into song when he wears them. But the man with small hair is the only person who wears his hair small, and no-one else has colourful boots or musical beads. So he decides to hide the things that make him happy in order to blend in with the crowd. Until one day he looks in the mirror and doesn't recognise the man staring back at him ...

Lazy Daisy

by Caz Goodwin & Ashley King

If only someone would explain to Jasper that Daisy is a koala, NOT a dog!

All of Jasper's dreams come true when he finds his very own 'puppy dog' to walk in the park. But Daisy the 'dog' isn't much of a walker — she tends to spend most of her day climbing gumtrees and dozing. Just as Jasper's about to give up on his dream, he has a madcap idea of how Daisy can still join him on his daily walk, whether she's asleep or not.

Lazy Daisy is a hilarious rhyming story that will have kids doubled over with laughter.

Jedda Robbaard is a children's book illustrator and author whose work is well known here, in Australia, and internationally, having been published in many languages, including English, French, Dutch, Greek, Italian and Chinese. Book illustration is an opportunity for Jedda to create little worlds where characters can play, unhindered by society's restrictions. Jedda says, referring to the style of her art, 'The majority of my illustrations have been created simply with pencil and watercolour. They are just puddles of colour if you like. Puddles manipulated into tiny beings with feelings, obligations and agendas.'
