

THE RIGHT(S) GLASSES

Name: Anne Brans

Company: Hanser - Children Books

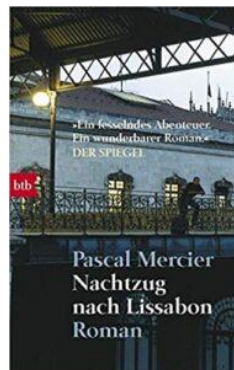

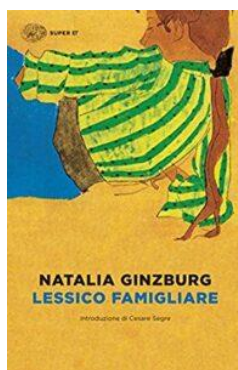

Question #1: Where and when do you read?

I usually read in bed in the evening and during the weekend on my sofa. On holidays I love reading in trains and at lovely open air places with a great view.

Question #2: Which book have you most given as a present?

During my Italian studies I often gave away Lessico familiare by Natalia Ginzburg – regarding Children's books titles it was Jan mein Freund by the Swedish author Peter Pohl.

During my time at HANSER it was Nachtzug nach Lissabon by Pascal Mercier and from now on I will give away Was man von hier aus sehen kann by Mariana Leky to all my friends who didn't read this wonderful book yet.

Question #3: What do you remember about your first book fair?

Frankfurt 2001: A full schedule without an own desk at our stand. Every meeting a surprise and in the evening early to bed. In my dreams all these new editors and publishers and agents appeared again, in a long long line....

Question #4: Tell us the resolutions you have made for this year.

To found a reading circle (done) and to join a chorus (to do).

Question #5: Tell us about a bad habit, an obsession or a particular attitude you have picked up since starting to work at Hanser

I started to take a smell at every book I'm going to read.....
