Cross Bones: A Dog's Breakfast

author Jack Henseleit • illustrator Chris Kennett

JUNIOR FICTION

Features a die-cut porthole cover!

Embark on a hilarious high-seas adventure!

With a stolen map clutched in their paws, Magnus, Daisy, Ed, and Spot are searching for hidden treasure on the great sea. But with other fearsome pirates closing in around them, can these scally-waggers come out top dogs?

A hilarious and high-stakes pirate tail from the pen of much-loved author Jack Henseleit, packed full of cinematic illustrations by Chris Kennett.

Book 2 coming soon!

- Each book contains 3 thrilling adventures!
- Highly-illustrated format is perfect for reluctant readers!
- Goofy, clever and ridiculously silly!

Jack Henseleit is a pirate children's author. Before Cross Bones he wrote The Witching Hours, a series of spooky fairytales for older readers, which has sold across the globe.

Chris Kennett has been drawing ever since he could hold a pencil (or so his mum says). But professionally, Chris has been creating quirky characters for over 20 years. He's best known for drawing weird and wonderful creatures from the Star Wars universe, and the School of Monsters and Nerd Herd series.

Zombie Diaries: Face the Moosic!

authors Guy Edmonds & Matt Zeremes • illustrator Jake A Minton

Follow Jimmy and his friends as they try to stay sane (and human) in a zombie-cow apocalypse.

Hey! I'm Jimmy and I'm STILL living in a totally weird ZOMBIE-COW APOCALYPSE! And everyone is STILL mooing and drooling all over the place.

Turns out that finding a cure to turn all of the adults back into humans isn't as easy peasy lemon squeezy as we thought. My best buds, Daisy and Hooey, and I aren't giving up hope though! We're sure my dog Bear and his super special drool is the key to fixing this whole mess ...

In the second book in the hilarious zombie-comedy series, author duo Guy Edmonds and Matt Zeremes take readers on a butt-kicking adventure full of cows, explosions, trains, robots, snacks, drool, yaks, solar energy, farts and spaghetti.

Dusty in the Outwilds

author Rhiannon Williams • illustrator Martina Heiduczek

An enchanting new adventure. An unforgettable land.

Dusty has grown up hearing whispers about her mysterious aunt Meg, who went off to live 'out wild' and never returned. Yet Dusty's father refuses to discuss what happened – and her only clue is a photograph of her aunt as a young girl with a strange, monkey-like creature on her shoulder.

But when Dusty learns that her family's beloved bushland property might be sold, she's convinced that only Meg could stop it happening. So Dusty sets off to find her ... and that's when she discovers what 'out wild' really means.

The Outwilds are beguiling. Dangerous. And full of creatures Dusty half-remembers from old bedtime stories – beautiful, but deadly. Is Meg still out there? And even if she is, how will Dusty bring her home?

Written by Rhiannon Williams, author of the beloved Narroway trilogy, this stand-alone hardback features stunning illustrations by Martina Heiduczek and is the perfect gift for readers aged 9+.

Triple Threat

author Katy Warner

She can sing. She can dance. She can act. But who is she when the curtain closes?

At the prestigious performing arts school Arcadia Grammar, the theatre kids and the musical theatre kids have just one rule: you DO NOT go for each other's lead roles. But Edie is about to throw the rulebook out the window – and all hell is going to break loose.

Edie Emerson is a triple threat: she can sing and dance and act. But despite being the lead in every musical at Arcadia, she knows her future on the stage is uncertain. At least until the infamous director Toby Swan agrees to stage Romeo and Juliet at the academy.

This show could launch Edie's career – except she doesn't do 'theatre'. And she's already agreed to star in a new musical written by her best friend, Will. So when Toby casts the annoying-but-hot Noah Winters as Romeo, and he insists on Edie for Juliet, it sets the stage for drama ...

A contemporary young adult novel about musical theatre, first romance and standing up for yourself from brilliant YA author Katy Warner.

Completely Normal (and Other Lies)

author Biffy James

Love has rules. So does grief. And Stella Wilde's about to break them all.

Stella Wilde is secretly in love with the hottest guy in school, Isaac Calder. He seems to love her back, but there's a problem – he already has a girlfriend, the gorgeous Grace Reyes.

When Isaac is killed in a car accident, the entire school is turned upside down with grief. And while Grace can mourn publicly, Stella has to hide her feelings to stop people from finding out about her and Isaac being more than friends.

But how long can Stella keep lying – to herself and everyone else? And when the truth finally comes out, how will it affect her newfound friendship with Grace?

Shortlisted for the Ampersand Prize, Completely Normal (and Other Lies) is a gripping contemporary YA novel that's as witty and sarcastic as it is tender and moving. With its insightful explorations of love, grief, mental health and friendship, it's perfect for fans of John Green, Krystal Sutherland and Sally Rooney.

Wild Things: How We Learn to Read and What Can Happen If We Don't

author Sally Rippin

A parenting book from one of Australia's best-selling authors.

A compelling, surprising and incredibly timely exploration of neurodiversity and how children learn – or fail – to read.

When Sally Rippin discovered her child was struggling to read, the best-selling children's author assumed it would sort itself out over time. She couldn't have been more wrong. Her son's dyslexia and ADHD went unsupported for years, leaving him further and further behind his peers, and labelled as 'difficult' by an education system that couldn't easily cater to neurodivergent kids. By the time Sally learned how to advocate for her child, it was – almost – too late.

This extraordinary book for parents is about how we learn to read and what can happen if we don't, through the eyes of a parent who started out by doing everything the wrong way. Through meticulous research, interviews with educational experts and conversations with neurodivergent adults, Rippin shares her brilliant and eye-opening insights into how we can help all kids find the joy in reading, and advocate for them within our schooling system. After all, they say school isn't for everyone, but if everyone must go to school – then why not?

Over 10 million books sold!

Sally Rippin is a best-selling children's author, with over ten million books sold in sixteen languages.

Sally travels across the world speaking with parents, teachers and librarians about how to engage struggling readers, having brought up one herself.

Come Over to My House

authors Eliza Hull & Sally Rippin • illustrator Daniel Gray-Barnett

A delightful picture book that explores the home lives of children and parents who are d/Deaf or disabled.

A cast of friendly characters invite friends over for a play – there's fun to be had, food to eat and families to meet!

*Come over to my house.
Come over and play!
I'll show you around,
you can stay the whole day.
We'll swing on the swing-set
and splash in the pool.
Then I'll race you inside
where my bedroom is cool.*

Co-written by disability advocate Eliza Hull and best-selling author Sally Rippin, the inclusive text authentically explores the characters' various disabilities. Featuring a gorgeous die-cut cover, bright illustrations and a diverse cast, this is a must-read for all families.

A unique book that celebrates diversity and difference!

Eliza Hull is a producer and musician based in Castlemaine, Victoria. She has written music for American TV shows Awkward, Teen Wolf and Saving Hope, and is currently writing the film score for Australian feature film, Swallow. Most recently, Eliza produced an eight-part podcast series, We've Got This, on parenting with a disability, for the ABC – as well as a podcast series on disability and relationships for ABC Radio National. Eliza is a proud disabled woman, with a physical disability. She is the Access and Inclusion Coordinator for Arena Theatre.

Sally Rippin is one of Australia's best-selling and most-loved children's authors. She has written over 50 books for children and young adults, and her mantle holds numerous awards for her writing. Best known for her Billie B Brown and Hey Jack!, and Polly and Buster series, Sally loves to write stories with heart, as well as characters that resonate with children, parents and teachers alike.

All the Love in the World

author Louise Fedele • illustrator Ana Toro

Tuck in for a global bedtime adventure!

Do you know what KE A GO RATA and SENI SEVIYORUM and AI SHITERU and JE T'AIME have in common?

They all mean I LOVE YOU.

Come along for a charming romp across the globe in this sweet bedtime story, and collect a few of the many ways we express our love to each other the world over.

With nods to special travel memories and the inability for any amount of words to capture the love between a parent and child, this is truly a story to treasure.

From debut author Louise Fedele, with gorgeous art from Venezuelan illustrator Ana Toro, this stunning book is complete with die-cut cover and internals!

With stunning heart-shaped die-cuts throughout!

The Kindness Club

author Kate Bullen-Casanova • illustrator Dave Petzold

Say hello to The Kindness Club!

A diverse cast of friendly characters welcome a new kid to their preschool and show them how all types of fun and emotions are for everyone.

The Kindness Club depicts familiar activities and scenarios that readers can expect at preschool or kindergarten, but challenges age-old assumptions that boys will be boys and girls will be pretty.

With uplifting text and a playful art style, kids will have a ball poring over each page.

Herman Crab

author Peter Helliar • illustrator Matt Shanks

Meet Herman Crab.

Herman is a bit of a hermit. He lives alone and spends his days not seeing or talking to anyone – and that’s the way he likes it. He likes having breakfast alone. He likes doing his crabercises alone. He likes watching his favourite TV show, alone. That is until the day a bubbly crab named Sandy scuttles her way into his life ...

Herman Crab is Peter Helliar’s debut picture book and is packed full of Peter’s trademark humour with underlying themes of friendship and loneliness.

Peter’s fiction series, Frankie Fish, has sold over 250,000 copies.

Remarkable Remy

author Melanie Heyworth • illustrator Nathaniel Eckstrom

A warm and optimistic story that introduces an Autistic character to a young audience.

My best friend's name is Remy.

I think Remy is remarkable.

Remy is Autistic. That means Remy's brain works differently to my brain.

I love that Remy is different to me, because Remy can teach me new ways to experience the world.

A picture book for both Autistic and non-Autistic readers, Remarkable Remy illuminates the experiences, strengths and joys of Autistic people. The story helps explain the Autistic brain – how it works a little differently and how unique it is – and how our neurodivergent friends make the world remarkable!

The Little Things

author Penny Harrison • illustrator Hannah Sommerville

Celebrate the joy and comfort of life's little moments.

On days the sunshine stays away, you wake up feeling sad and grey, you'll find the small things can delight – those little things that feel just right.

A reassuring reminder that there is plenty in the world to make us smile and give us hope, whether it's spitting cherry pips or bubbly baths on rainy nights. A lyrical text that calls on our senses and travels through the seasons, The Little Things is beautifully illustrated and invites readers to find solace and delight in the small but special moments of our everyday lives.

A Job for Kingsley

author & illustrator Gabriel Evans

It's time to get to work.

Kingsley has decided to get a job. This is not a decision to be taken lightly. After all, a job is a BIG responsibility.

But finding the right kind of job is much harder than Kingsley expected. Some jobs are tricky for paws. Some jobs are difficult to understand. And some just don't seem to appreciate a dog's work ethic the way they should. Will Kingsley ever find a job that is exactly right?

A sweet, tender and deeply funny story about the power of friendship, belonging, and one dog's mission to find the perfect job.

White Sunday

author Litea Fuata • illustrator Myo Yim

This charming own-voices story welcomes us into the home of a Samoan family, complete with love, food, merrymaking and ... adventure.

Every year in October, Sina and her family celebrate White Sunday. It's a day when the children are celebrated at church and they get to read, sing, perform and dance in front of the community. There's also a feast after, and the kids eat first! Maybe this year Uncle Fred will bring his green bananas in coconut cream and Sina will receive plenty of ulas for her performance.

A beautifully illustrated, heartwarming story for kids aged 3 and up.

Alone

author & illustrator Scott Stuart

Being alone can be tough, especially in the darkness of space.

Earth is an affectionate planet who is looking for a friend. She's delighted when she spots Sun, but Sun is quick to reject her offer of friendship.

*I can't be friends with a planet like you,
for I am a star and you are too new.*

As Earth searches the solar system, she's met with a similar response from the other planets – Mercury only likes friends who are dry, Mars only makes friends with those who are red, and Jupiter only has time for big friends.

When something fiery, red and menacing comes hurtling towards Earth, she fears the worst ... but could it be a sign that something wonderful is about to happen?

Alone is an endearing story about how sometimes our worst moments can lead to the best things in life.

Plume: Festival Seeker

author & illustrator Tania McCartney

The most adorable penguin world explorer, Plume, is celebrating – what else? – celebrations!

Throughout the year, the world is plump with astonishing festivals and Plume loves them all! Journey alongside this adventurous, colour-loving penguin as he jumps aboard the Albatross Express to enjoy a range of enchanting events across the globe.

Stare in wonder at the Up Helly Aa fire festival in Scotland and the freaky Day of Masquerade in Costa Rica. Get messy at the squelchy Boryeong Mud Festival in South Korea or La Tomatina tomato battle in Spain. Scatter a rainbow of colour during Holi in India or enjoy a celebration of gifts, sweets and kindness at Eid al-Fitr in Algeria.

A year of wonder and excitement culminates in Plume's favourite festival of them all – Christmas! Will his reluctant penguin friends join him for the celebrations?

Jedda Robaard

Jedda Robaard is a children's book illustrator and author whose work is well known in Australia and internationally, having been published in many languages, including English, French, Dutch, Greek, Italian and Chinese. Book illustration is an opportunity for Jedda to create little worlds where characters can play, unhindered by society's restrictions. Jedda says, referring to the style of her art, "The majority of my illustrations have been created simply with pencil and watercolour. They are just puddles of colour if you like. Puddles manipulated into tiny beings with feelings, obligations and agendas."
