Introducing Union Square & Co.

New York City's Union Square Park is singular in its design, its location, its energy. But it is like so many community gathering places around the world—people shop its greenmarket, visit the neighborhood's restaurants, experience art and music, voice their perspectives on social issues, burn off youthful energy in the playground, play board games, or find a moment of peace on a park bench.

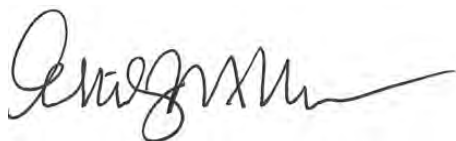

The spirit behind this park's singularity as well as its universality influenced the creation of Union Square & Co., both from a literal and figurative perspective. We're located in the heart of New York City's Union Square neighborhood, and, inspired by the characteristics of this park, our focus is on quality, curation, entertainment, distinction, and change.

Our mission is to publish books and products with a point of view.

Welcome to Union Square & Co.'s inaugural list, highlighting our focus on talent-driven publishing for adults and children. We are also thrilled to welcome two new businesses to the family: Knock Knock, known for its innovative gift and stationery products, and Boxer Books, known for its commitment to picture books for young children.

Just as a park unites a community, we believe that words unite us all. And it's with that spirit that we invite you to explore Union Square & Co. and be nourished, entertained, and inspired.

Yours,

A SHADOW CROWN

BY MELISSA BLAIR

To the kingdom, Keera is the king's Blade, his most feared and trusted spy and assassin. But in the shadows, she works with Prince Killian and his Shadow—the dark, brooding Fae, Riven, who sets her blood on fire. Together, they plot to topple the crown.

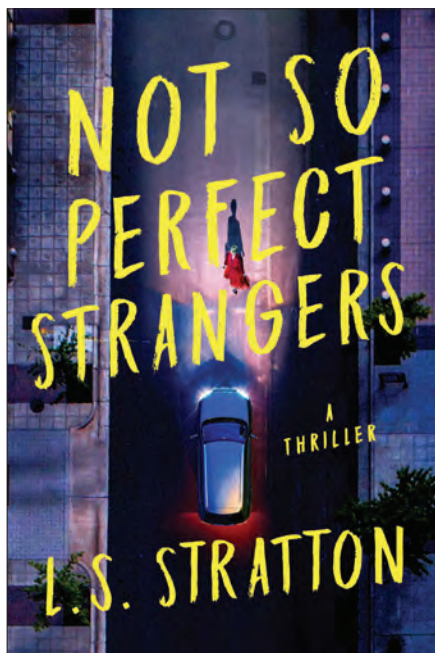

Keera swore she would never open her heart again after a loss she barely survived. But she will soon find she has more to lose than she ever imagined . . .

NOT SO PERFECT STRANGERS

BY L.S. STRATTON

Tasha Jenkins has tried—and failed—to leave her abusive husband. But a chance encounter with a white woman fleeing her own angry husband entangles the lives of two strangers from very different worlds.

Tasha and Madison want to help each other out of their marriages. But they have very different ideas of what that means. . . .

The women are on a collision course that will end in the case files of the D.C. homicide unit. Unraveling the truth may be impossible . . . but what has the truth ever done for women like Tasha and Madison?

WRATH

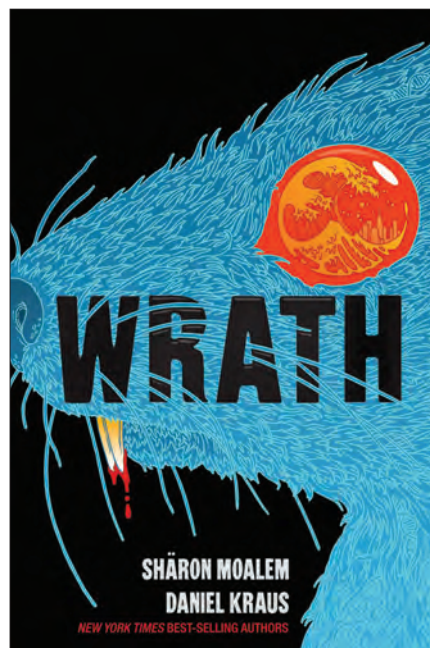

BY SHARON MOALEM MD, PHD AND DANIEL KRAUS

In a future much nearer than you think, where scientific experimentation is exploited for commercial profit, unwisely under-supervised cutting-edge technology creates a menace that threatens the very fabric of human existence.

Wrath is the story of a lab rat instilled with human genes whose supersized intelligence helps him to engineer his escape into the world outside the lab: a world vastly ill-equipped to deal with the menace he represents. Modified through advances that have boosted his awareness of humankind's cruelty in the name of science, and endowed with a rat's natural proclivity to procreate regularly, Sammy has the potential to sire a rodent army capable of viciously overwhelming the human race.

THE MANTRA ORACLE

AN ESSENTIAL DECK FOR SELF-DISCOVERY

BY LILI BARBERY-COULON

Mantras are sacred sounds originally conceived to aid in meditation, which have taken on significance in a more general sense as a way to manifest your desire or strengthen your intentions. This beautiful deck—illustrated in full color by the author's husband, painter Bastien Coulon—is an elegant way to incorporate the concept of mantras and their role in meditation into your daily practice. The Mantra Oracle works both as a tool for concentration and as a daily affirmation deck that can provide guidance and clarity. A guidebook also lists the properties and meanings of each card and how to use the deck for a variety of purposes.

THE TAROT ALMANAC

A SEASONAL GUIDE TO DIVINING WITH YOUR CARDS

BY BESS MATASSA

This month-by-month guide is an essential path to adding structure to your practice and deepening your understanding of tarot. By providing a framework built on astrology and seasonal magic, author Bess Matassa offers a method to develop skills and flex your intuitive understanding of tarot as days pass, the moon waxes and wanes, and the flora and fauna of this planet imbue the earth with the constant language of change. Each month highlights key cards, affirmations, themes, and undated events like equinoxes. Rituals and journal prompts strengthen readers' connection to the cards, which helps them not only understand themselves, but also creates a more holistic relationship to their divinatory practice.

MUSHROOM MAGICK

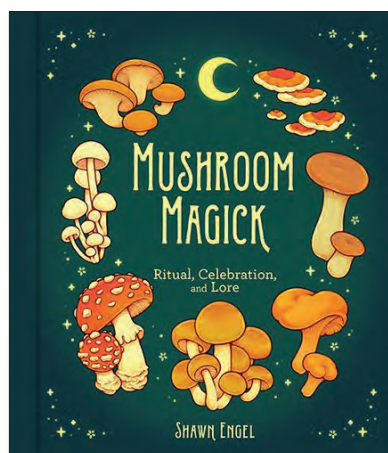

RITUAL, CELEBRATION, AND LORE

BY SHAWN ENGEL

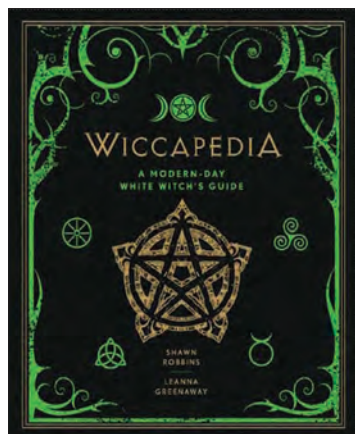

Mushroom Magick is a whimsical collection of mushroom facts and fables divided into three sections: First, profiles of 22 well-known mushrooms include information on biology and common uses as well as a rundown of their energetic properties and suggestions for incorporating them into spellwork. Section two provides a world-spanning collection of mushroom myths and fables. The final section is a taste of the spells and rituals that you can perform with common mushrooms such as creminis, shiitakes, and portobellos—carved candles, floor washes, teas, and even some yummy meals can improve your love life, super-charge your good fortune, or even cast a well-deserved hex upon your most hated enemy.

SO SORRY FOR YOUR LOSS

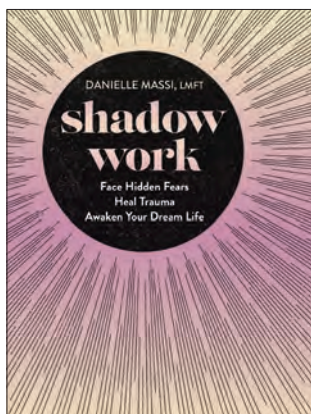

LEARNING TO LIVE WITH GRIEF, AND OTHER GRAVE CONCERNS

BY DINA GACHMAN

Since losing her mother to cancer in 2018 and her sister to alcoholism in 2021, author and journalist Dina Gachman has dedicated herself to understanding what it means to grieve, how to live with loss, and the ways we stay connected to those we miss. Through a mix of personal storytelling, reporting, and insight from experts, Gachman gives readers a fresh take on grief—whether the loss is a family member, beloved pet, or a romantic relationship. No one wants to join the grief club, since membership comes with zero perks, but So Sorry for Your Loss will make that initiation just a little less painful.

NESTING AFTER DIVORCE
 A STEP-BY-STEP GUIDE TO CO-PARENTING
 AFTER YOUR MARRIAGE ENDS
 BY BETH BEHRENDT

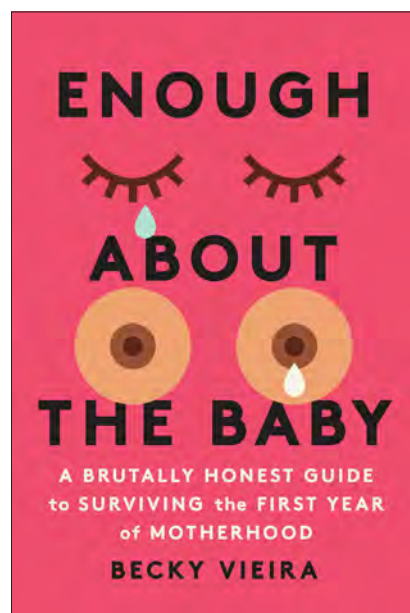

Research suggests when a couple separates, children suffer the most, as they're typically shuttled back and forth between two different homes. When Beth Behrendt and her husband divorced, she found a better way: She gave her children custody of the home, while she and her husband moved around. After successfully implementing more than six years of what's known as "nesting," Behrendt has created a step-by-step guide for divorcing parents to introduce the practice in their own families. In Nesting After Divorce, Behrendt provides a program that can start when an unhappily married couple considers divorce. She offers advice on deciding whether nesting is the right choice for a family and communicating the concept to a spouse, children, friends, and family. She outlines the steps for assembling a nesting "team" of legal, financial, and mental health professionals and even shows how, surprisingly, nesting is often a more affordable approach to divorce than the traditional two-home model.

ENOUGH ABOUT THE BABY
 A BRUTALLY HONEST GUIDE TO SURVIVING
 THE FIRST YEAR OF MOTHERHOOD
 BY BECKY VIEIRA

Superheroes don't have babies; real and imperfect non-superhumans do. When we come to terms with this, the result is a happier and less traumatizing start to motherhood. The mom behind the popular Instagram account @wittyotter provides actionable advice on how to successfully navigate the frustrations and challenges that come with a new baby. Vieira draws on her own experiences and interviews with moms and experts to get to the bottom of the toughest and most taboo topics—from managing nosey in-laws and an anxious partner to surviving the first postpartum poop and when to seek out treatment for depression. The book is filled with hacks, tips, and tricks that only the most seasoned—and enlightened—mom knows. [Ever hear of a condomcicle, an ergonomic ice pack for a battered nether region?] Vieira reminds readers that motherhood shouldn't be martyrdom, and a new mom who puts her needs first often isn't selfish at all.

THE COMPLETE BEER COURSE

FROM NOVICE TO EXPERT IN TWELVE TASTING CLASSES

BY JOSHUA M. BERNSTEIN

First published in 2013, The Complete Beer Course has helped thousands of beer enthusiasts navigate the vast and often confusing world of beer. Bernstein is back to serve up a second round of insights. He introduces readers to must-know breweries and the industry's rising stars. Each chapter is devoted to a specific beer style and teaches readers how to taste and evaluate a wide selection, especially new beers gaining popularity such as sours and nonalcoholic varieties. Additionally, readers will find up-to-date information on the pandemic's effects on the beer world, expanded coverage of international beers, and the author's top picks for any beer-drinking occasion. If your knowledge of IPAs is a little hazy, then this guide is for you.

COCKTAILS IN COLOR

A SPIRITED GUIDE TO THE ART AND JOY OF DRINKMAKING

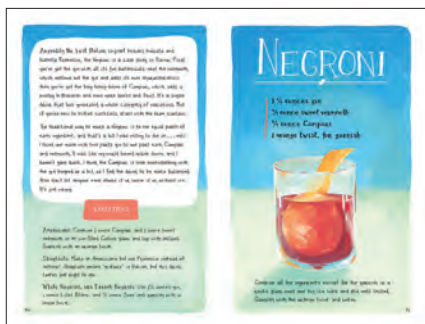

BY SAMMI KATZ AND OLIVIA MCGIFF

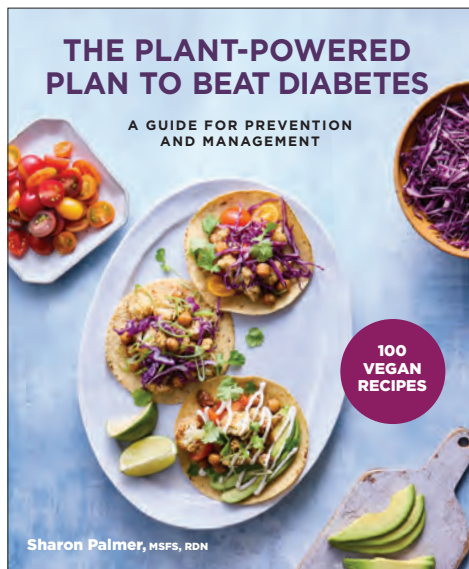

A cocktail book as beautiful as it practical—from two experienced New York City bartenders who utilize both their design and drink expertise.

Cocktails in Color celebrates the craft and delight of drinkmaking, from raw ingredients to finished, delectable libation. Together Sammi Katz (bartender) and Olivia McGiff (illustrator and ex-bartender) playfully explore the elements, tastes, and techniques of all things cocktails in order to create an accessible, visually delicious new guide to drinking that gives you the tools to design your own custom cocktails. Whether you're a seasoned pro, casual imbibor, or new kid at the bar, Cocktails in Color will be sure to have a place on your bar cart. Each page is fully illustrated with rich gouache paintings and encourages readers to explore a palette of ingredients for their developing palate.

RECLAIMING THE ACHIEVEMENTS OF 40 WOMEN
(FROM THE MEN WHO TOOK THE CREDIT)

BY KAITLIN CULMO & EMILY MCDERMOTT, WITH ART BY KEZIA GABRIELLA

Authors Kaitlin Culmo and Emily McDermott (with stunning art by Kezia Gabriella) give new life to women whose achievements have been stolen, overlooked, or just plain ignored throughout recorded history. You may have learned that Cervantes “invented fiction” with Don Quixote in the 17th century. In reality, Lady Murasaki predated him by hundreds of years with her Tale of Genji in 11th-century Japan. These stories, which span science, art, and innovation of all kinds, will keep you both amused and enraged. But don’t just get mad: get even by reading about—and effectively taking back—thousands of years’ worth of female achievement.

ANGEL ISLAND

BY INEZ HAYNES GILLMORE

Five men survive a South Seas shipwreck and wash up on a seemingly deserted beach, only to discover that five beautiful, winged women live on the island as well. Dazzled and soon in love, the men will do anything to possess these flying women.

First published in 1914, and praised by Ursula K. LeGuin as “a real rediscovery—romantic, satiric, funny, fanciful, and a good read,” Angel Island is an adventure story and a genre-defining tale about women's rights.

THE LAST MAN

BY MARY SHELLEY

One of the first dystopian novels ever written, The Last Man traces the path and impact of an unstoppable pandemic as it slowly overtakes the world. Beginning in the year 2073, the story follows Lionel Vesey—the titular last man—and his circle of friends as the disease creeps from continent to continent.

Published in 1826, after the death of Shelley's husband, her step-sister, and her two children, The Last Man is both an eerily prescient story about disaster and a moving fable about surviving personal grief. As Shelley observed in her diary entry of May 14, 1824: “The last man! Yes I may well describe that solitary being's feelings, feeling myself as the last relic of a beloved race, my companions extinct before me.”

LODORE

BY MARY SHELLEY

Also published as The Beautiful Widow, Mary Shelley's penultimate novel explores the web of relationships between three women bound together by the exacting Lord Lodore: his estranged wife, Cornelia, ruled by her mother and the norms of aristocratic society; his daughter, Ethel, raised in the wilderness of Illinois and utterly reliant on her father; and finally, the independent and highly educated Fanny Derham, the daughter of Lodore's childhood friend.

Long considered the most Austen-like and socially oriented of Mary Shelly's novels, Lodore is an essential read for anyone seeking to understand this brilliant feminist writer.

THE WOMAN IN BLACK

BY M. Y. HALIDOM

During a trip to a nearby village church, the proudly unmarried Sir Ashleigh Carruthers meets the alluring and hypnotically beautiful Woman in Black and is instantly enraptured. But when the vicar collapses mid-sermon after looking upon the Woman's face, Carruthers is left to wonder: Who is this mysterious woman? And should he be worried about her pointed ears, her pointed teeth, and her ability to vanish into thin air?

Featuring a bewitching and depraving antiheroine who leaves a pile of bloody bodies in her wake, The Woman in Black is the not-quite-living embodiment of every Victorian man's worst nightmare.

THE WORLD'S DESIRE

BY ANDREW LANG AND H. RIDER HAGGARD

The World's Desire begins with Odysseus utterly alone. His kingdom of Ithaca is an empty, abandoned wasteland. His beloved wife Penelope is dead and his patron goddess Athena has forsaken him.

But then Aphrodite visits Odysseus and sends him on a quest to find the world's desire, the face that launched a thousand ships: the woman he once knew as Helen of Troy. Armed with his legendary bow, Odysseus's final journey takes him to a court riven by murderous factions, ruled by a queen who is haunted by dreams of Odysseus's face. . .

MARTIAL ARTS SUDOKU® 2024 DAY-TO-DAY CALENDAR

BY FRANK LONGO

If you love sudoku, what better way to treat yourself than to set aside a little time for one every day? Tackling the sudoku by puzzle master Frank Longo in this day-to-day calendar is a rewarding ritual. The rules are simple: fill in the empty squares so that every digit from 1 to 9 appears once (and only once) in every row, column, and 3×3 box. Answers are given on the back of the tear-off pages. You'll find day and date references on every page, as well as major and national holidays, and combined weekend pages. On Mondays, ease into your day with simple "White Belt" puzzles; the level of difficulty slowly increases as the week goes on, leading up to tricky "Black Belt" sudoku on the weekend, when you've got extra time to take on the challenge.

THE PUZZLE FILES OF LARRY LOGIC

BY DAN KATZ

Film noir meets small-town life in this unique, interconnected book of puzzles, starring Larry Logic, Enigmaville's most prone-to-dramatic-monologues cop. Every group of puzzles tells a mini-story of a new case, in which all the answers combine into one final whodunit. Each chapter presents new styles of puzzles and new challenges, leading to a dramatic conclusion tracking down the criminal mastermind behind it all.

THE UNITED STATES OF PUZZLES

WORD GAMES, BRAINTEASERS, TRIVIA, AND MORE!

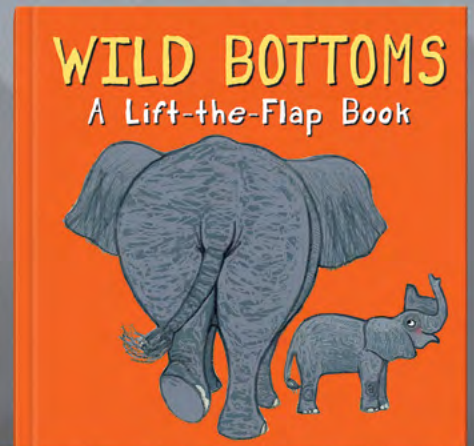

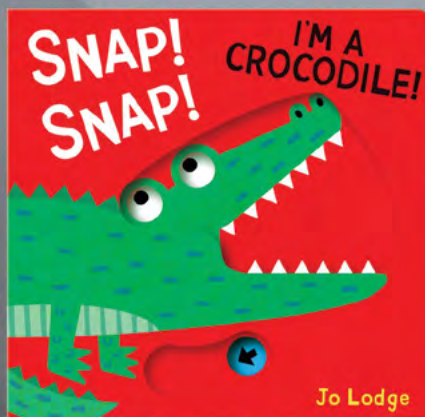

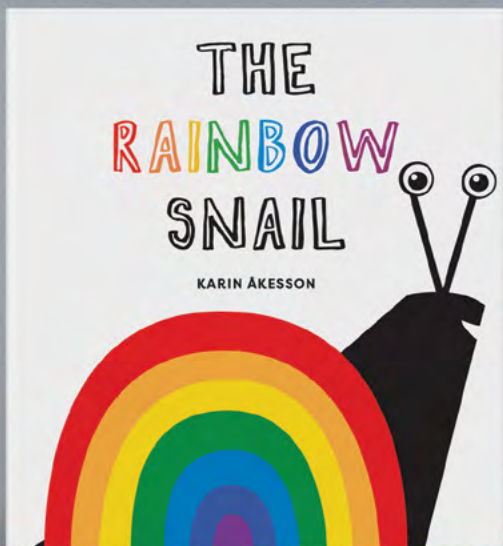

BY ERIC HARSHBARGER

This collection of brainteasers is as big and diverse as the U.S. itself. Inside, you'll find something for everyone: word games (like a crisscross including all 50 states), logic puzzles, trivia (such as identifying songs with states in their names), visual conundrums, state flag connect-the-dots, a giant maze (begin it anywhere, but you must end up in Washington, D.C.), with new surprises always around the corner. This book makes a great gift for any patriotic puzzle lover, or the perfect entertainment for a coast-to-coast trip.

DEAR MR. G

BY CHRISTINE EVANS, ART BY GRACEY ZHANG

A gentle and moving story about an intergenerational friendship between a young child and his neighbor told through a series of letters, for fans of Ida, Always.

When Jackson's soccer ball accidentally lands in his neighbor's rosebush, he thinks he's ruined Mr. Graham's roses forever. So he quickly writes a letter to Mr. Graham that blossoms into a marvelous friendship. Jackson writes letters, highlighting the everyday moments to make them feel larger than life, and Mr. G keeps writing back until the very end of his life, encouraging Jackson to live each day to the fullest.

This breathtakingly beautiful epistolary story shows the strength of letter writing and intergenerational bonds. The text is accompanied by tender and evocative artwork to remind us that even as seasons change, our loved ones always stay in our hearts.

IZMELDA

THE FAIREST DRAGON OF THEM ALL!

BY JOAN MARR, ILLUSTRATED BY LALA WATKINS

For fans of Interstellar Cinderella, here is a delightful and humorous fairy-tale twist that turns the tables on princesses and dragons!

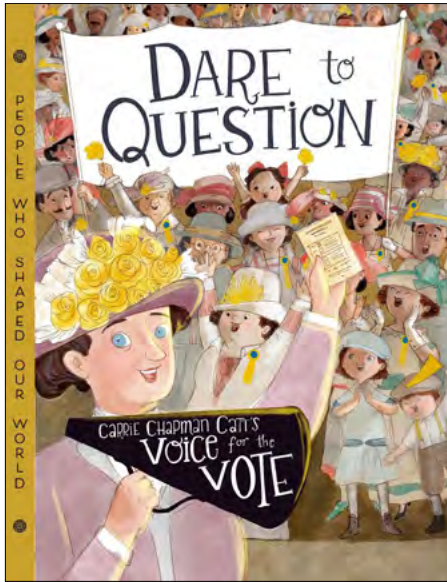

When Izmelda and Princess Penelope have a chance encounter, they are quick to measure each other up until they realize the best way to make a new friend is to add a sprinkle of perspective. This delightful story is an endearing twist on fairy tales where happily-ever-afters begin with being true to oneself—and accepting others for who they are.

PEOPLE WHO SHAPED OUR WORLD

DARE TO QUESTION: CARRIE CHAPMAN CATT

CARRIE CHAPMAN CATT'S VOICE FOR THE VOTE

BY JASMINE STIRLING, ILLUSTRATED BY UDAYANA LUGO

Jasmine Stirling, author of A Most Clever Girl: How Jane Austen Discovered Her Voice, delivers a powerful, poetic picture book biography perfect for fans of I Dissent: Ruth Bader Ginsburg Makes Her Mark and the Rebel Girls series.

As a child, Carrie Chapman Catt asked a lot of questions: How many stars are in the sky? Do germs have personalities? And why can't Mama vote? Catt's curiosity led her to college, to a career in journalism, and finally to becoming the president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association. Catt knew the movement needed a change—and she set to work mobilizing women (and men) across the nation to dare to question a woman's right to vote.

On August 18, 1920, Catt pinned a yellow rose to her dress and waited while lawmakers in Tennessee cast their deciding votes to ratify the 19th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America. After a seventy-year campaign, had they finally won? Stirling's suspenseful retelling of the dramatic final “yea” that changed history brings the past to life for young readers.

DEADENDIA: THE BROKEN HALO

BY EISNER AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR HAMISH STEELE

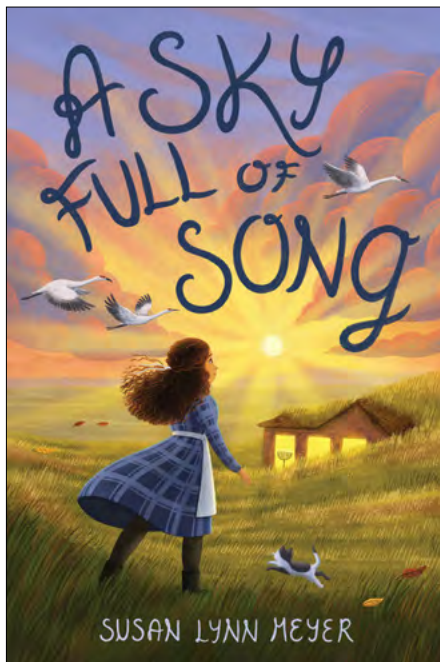

It's been weeks since Dead End was destroyed, and as it reopens as a hotel, resident tour guide turned hotel manager Norma is determined to leave the ghosts of the past where they belong. But with her friendship with Barney up in the air and angels and demons using the hotel as their literal wrestling ring, Norma soon finds that unwanted ghosts can appear at any moment, especially when they're your own.

INSPIRATION FOR THE NETFLIX SERIES
DEAD END: PARANORMAL PARK

A SKY FULL OF SONG

BY SUSAN LYNN MEYER

Eleven-year-old Shoshana and her family flee from Russian pogroms to North Dakota, where land is available to those who are willing to farm it—even Jews. Shoshana loves the wild freedom of the prairie, and, at first, loves school, making friends, and learning English. But when she is bullied for being Jewish, Shoshana starts to feel like it might be easier to hide her faith, even in America.

Only by listening to the music that's lived in her heart all along can Shoshana embrace the differences that allow her family to thrive and grow together in their new home.

RARE BIRDS

BY JEFF MILLER

Twelve-year-old Graham Dodds is no stranger to hospital waiting rooms. Sometimes, he feels like his entire life is one big waiting room. Waiting for the next doctor to tell them what's wrong with his mom. Waiting to find out what city they're moving to next. Waiting to see if they will finally get their miracle—a heart transplant to save his mom's life.

Now Graham is stuck in Florida for the summer, waiting once again. But when he meets a girl named Lou at the hospital, he finds a friend who needs a distraction as much as he does. She tells him about a contest to find the endangered Snail Kite, which resides in the local gator-filled swamps. Together they embark on an adventure, searching for the rare bird . . . and along the way, Graham might just find something else—himself.

JEFF MILLER CRAFTS A HEARTFELT STORY ABOUT WHAT IT MEANS TO LIVE IN THIS UNFORGETTABLE MIDDLE-GRADE NOVEL. RARE BIRDS IS A RARE FIND.

THE FALL OF THE HOUSE OF TATTERLY

BY SHANNA MILES

Twelve-year-old Theo Tatterly's ability to see ghosts is a useful skill in a house full of dead relatives, but it makes him a loner at school, where ghosts eternally pester him for help. For Theo, life is easier on the periphery. When his first failed exorcism portends an end to the Tatterly line, Theo must bring together his entire family—living and dead—to save the home they've lived in for generations . . . and maybe the world.

Author Shanna Miles's story of magical modern-day Charleston crackles with unforgettable characters and pays homage to the city's rich culture, folklore, and history.

SPINELESS

BY SAMANTHA SAN MIGUEL

Wild boar, alligators, hammerhead sharks . . . Can twelve-year-old Algie Emsworth survive the swamps of South Florida? More important, can he survive his asthma attacks long enough to make a scientific discovery and fulfill his dream of becoming a real naturalist?

With the help of Frankie and Lulu, intrepid heiresses to the Hotel Paraíso, Algie embarks on the adventure of a lifetime as he escapes certain death, discovers a brand-new species, and goes head-to-head with diabolical thieves, all while a deadly and mysterious red tide ravages the beaches and a possible curse threatens to close down the Hotel Paraíso for good. Can Algie, Frankie, and Lulu save themselves, solve the mystery of the hotel's curse, and save their never-before-seen species?

"San Miguel concocts a comical and exciting tale that leads to a wild, suspenseful, storm-tossed climax while weaving in thoughtful ruminations on the necessity of giving science, people, and nature their just dues, too." – Booklist, Starred Review

THE PAPER MUSEUM

BY KATE S. SIMPSON

Everything has changed since the last day Lydia saw her parents. Technology is on the fritz, the town's transport cubes are unreliable, and the mayor is waging a campaign against the Paper Museum, where Lydia has been living with her Uncle Lem, the curator, for the past three months.

It's a future where magic has been forbidden and paper has been replaced by plasticress, a product used for everything. People rely on the palm-sized projections their aer readers produce for information and entertainment. But Lydia knows the Paper Museum is someplace special. It's the only place where paper and books are reverently preserved. Soon Lydia discovers the museum is also hiding a secret. Her search for clues to her parents' disappearance leads Lydia to uncover mysterious symbols, hidden rooms, and magical elixirs . . . and triggers a countdown.

Lydia has thirty days to find her parents or she risks losing their home and the museum to the Mayor's destructive plans. Everything will be lost forever, including the secrets of the museum that hold this world together. Can Lydia find the answers in time?

GRAVEYARD GIRLS

1-2-3-4, I DECLARE A THUMB WAR

BY LISI HARRISON AND DANIEL KRAUS

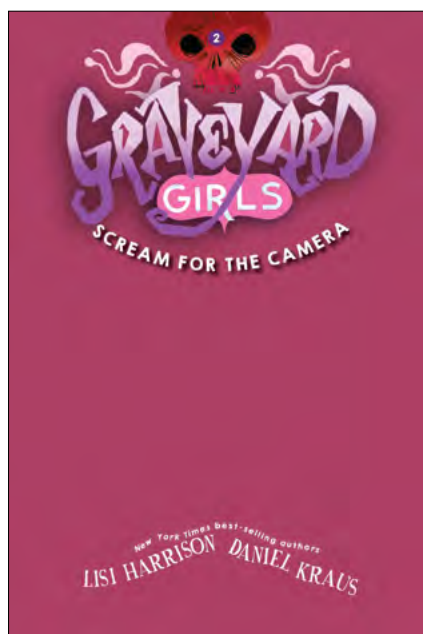

Meet Whisper, Frannie, Sophie, Gemma, and Zuzu, five friends who tell eerie tales by night and navigate middle school drama by day.

Misery Falls, Oregon, is abuzz as the 100th anniversary of the electrocution of the town's most infamous killer, Silas Hoke, approaches. When a mysterious text message leads the girls to the cemetery—where Silas Hoke is buried!—life can't get any creepier. Except, yes, it can, thanks to the surprise storyteller who meets them at the cemetery, inspires the first-ever meeting of the Graveyard Girls, and sets the stage for a terrifying tale from Whisper that they'll never forget.

This slightly scary, extremely addictive story is the first in a five-book series by New York Times bestselling authors Lisi Harrison and Daniel Kraus.

COVER NOT FINAL

SCREAM FOR THE CAMERA

Slightly scary, and extremely addictive, the Graveyard Girls series is perfect for fans of Goosebumps and The Babysitters Club.

It's been a month since the Graveyard Girls—Whisper, Frannie, Sophie, Gemma, and Zuzu—discovered Silas Hoke's empty grave. A month, and nobody has noticed. Did that really happen? Or did all the Silas Hoke hype go to their heads (and imaginations)? The good news: There might be one person who knows the truth. The bad news: He's a mortician . . . with a deadly secret.

Speaking of bad news, Sophie is spending way more time hanging out with “Danger Me” and way less time with the Graveyard Girls and her schoolwork. Straight-A Sophie is quickly sliding down the scale to becoming a B-flat friend. When it's her turn to tell a terrifying graveyard tale, will it be enough to win back her pals, or will her picture-perfect story turn into the ultimate photo bomb?

New York Times bestselling authors Lisi Harrison and Daniel Kraus deliver high-stakes thrills and middle school drama in their breakout Graveyard Girls series.

GOING DARK

BY MELISSA DE LA CRUZ

Eighteen-year-old Amelia Ashley, budding travel influencer, was headed out on a trip of a lifetime with her boyfriend, handsome and charismatic Josh. But after two weeks abroad, Josh returns to San Diego . . . alone.

Josh swears that Amelia left on her own. But when no one hears from Amelia for weeks, all signs point to Josh.

The spotlight on blonde, blue-eyed Amelia's disappearance sheds light on another case—a girl who went missing two years ago, who never made headlines or had a trending hashtag.

Is Amelia truly gone? Or is capturing the world's attention all part of the plan?

TENNESSEE RUSSO: THE LIONS OF THEBES

BY L. C. ROSEN

Tennessee Russo is having a really bad day. He found out his boyfriend has been cheating on him, and his estranged father, Henry, shows up out of the blue acting like nothing is wrong. A famous reality show archeologist, Henry wants Tennessee to join him as he searches for the rings of the Sacred Band of Thebes. The Sacred Band of Thebes was a fearsome army comprised of 150 gay couples in ancient Greece. Can Tennessee pass up the chance to show the world that not only have queer people been here forever, but that they were respected, and they were formidable?

WAIT FOR ME

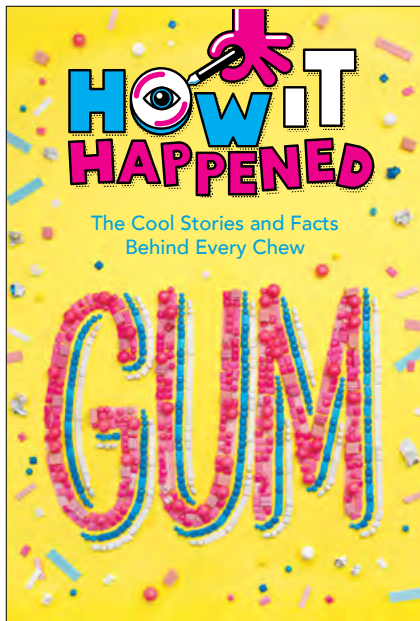

BY SARA SHEPARD

Who is Casey Rhodes? A no-nonsense realist or a hopeless romantic? A just-getting-by scholarship student or a sometimes-Cinderella dating the cool, cultured heir to a media empire and New York City's most eligible? At seventeen years old and already in her sophomore year at NYU, Casey sheds disguises effortlessly to navigate school and avoid the second-guessing that's plagued her since she and her boyfriend, Marcus, got together. Then Casey starts hearing voices that terrify her so badly she flees to the remote beach town of Avon Shores, where she can sort through her thoughts and reset. But the voices only get more intense and are now accompanied by visions of places she's never been and people she's never met, like Jake, who's lived in Avon Shores his whole life. Casey feels an immediate connection. What's even weirder: he feels it too. Together they search for answers, finding only questions—about their connection, Avon Shores, Casey's memories . . . and whose voice she is hearing inside her head.

DRAWING WITH SQUIGGLES & WIGGLES

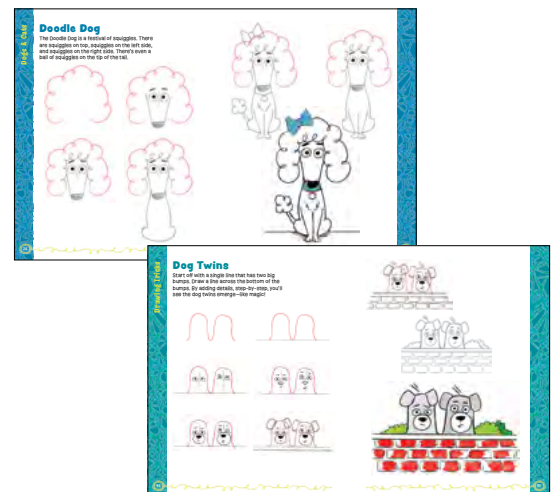

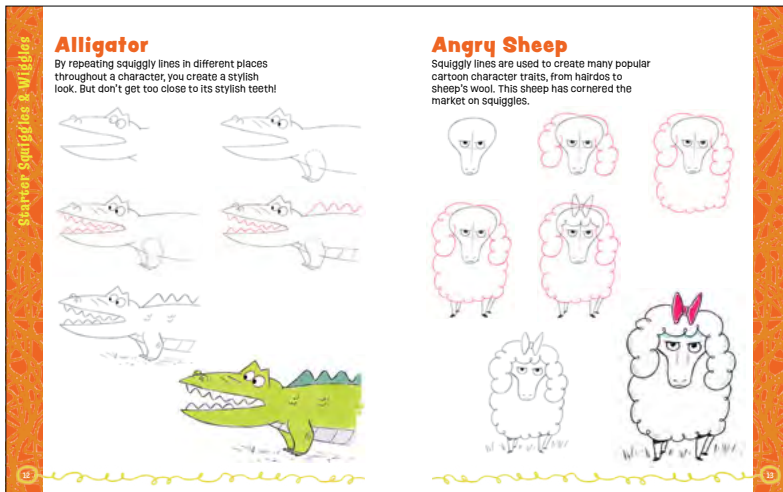

CREATE 125 CARTOONS WITH FUN SHAPES!

BY CHRISTOPHER HART

Cartoonist Christopher Hart is known for making drawing easy and fun! In Drawing with Squiggles & Wiggles, he starts with a variety of silly shapes and transforms them step-by-step into dozens of original drawings. A spiral becomes an elephant's trunk. Three bumps evolve into a trio of adorable pigs. A wavy line is turned into a girl with a stylish hairdo. Children of all ages will be able to follow along to create these engaging cartoons.
