Picturebook

One day, a very special flower blooms in a forest.

A special and unusual flower!

No one can agree on what color it is.

That's because it looks different to different people.

And that's when the fighting starts...

It takes a young girl to point out the truth.

But will the people listen?

“While you sleep, the moon dims the lights of the fiery sun, and twilight’s soft glow tells your body that it is time to rest.”

“Nocturnal animals like owls, foxes and hedgehogs, silently search for food, trying not to wake anyone. Meanwhile, the earth turns slowly and steadily, in order to be back facing the sun in time to wake you up in the morning.”

Young adult novel

*Nit is new in college. She doesn't like it, it's boring and she feels lonely in there. But Arnau, a clever and young astronomer, has just rented their attic so he is living with mum and her. Nit is kind of lost but Arnau knows the language of stars very well. Together they will make up legends for the new constellations and find the key to all doors.

*Nit means night in catalan.

Picturebook

With a unique formula, the author manages to treat the loss of a loved one from humor, ingenuity and tenderness

“Grandpa Lluís was very, very old! And he always used to say that when you’re as old as him, you have to be extremely watchful, because one day, without even realising it, in the blink of an eye, you’ll lose the colour of your hair or even the memory!”

At times, I really miss Grandpa
Luis but I never stop smiling, because as Grandpa would always say, whatever happens in life,
the only thing you should never,
ever lose is your smile!

Sweet People Are Everywhere, an illustrated book for children by internationally renowned writer and activist Alice Walker, focuses on a common thread of the “sweet people” who can be found all over the world. The poem addresses a young boy getting his first passport, taking the boy—and the reader—on a journey through a series of countries around the globe. The poem is a powerful celebration of humanity and globalism, embodying a generosity of spirit that is inspiring, timely, and timeless.

Oh storyteller tell us a story. Make it a tale. Tell me about the people of old. Tell me about 1001 Nights. And about Lunja daughter of the Ghoul, and about the son of the Sultan. I'm about to tell a story. We'll be far from this world. I'm about to tell a story. Every of us has story in his heart. Narrate and forget we're young. Tell us about heaven and hell. About the bird that never flew in his life. Make us understand the meaning of the world. Oh storyteller tell it just as they told you. Don't add anything, don't leave anything out. We could see into your mind. Narrate to make us forget this time. Leave us at once upon a time.
