Little Lambkin has lots of toys, but all she really wants is her small, soft, but very dirty comfort blanket. She never lets it go—until Ducky comes over for a playdate and gently helps Lambkin give up her beloved blankie and join in the fun.

Bernette Ford has written many books for children, including The Magical Snowflake, First Snow, and Ballet Kitty for Boxer Books. A publisher for many years, she also worked as a children's book packager through her company, Color-Bridge Books. She lived in Brooklyn, New York, with her husband, George Ford, an award-winning illustrator. After her death in 2021, an award in her name is to be established in 2024.

Life's Little Lessons: Bye-Bye Diaper

Bernette Ford, Illustrated by Sam Williams

Bye-bye diapers! for me! That's what toddlers will proudly proclaim after they hear this appealing tale of a lovable duck who takes the big step. When Piggy can't come out to play because he's busy sitting on the potty, Ducky realizes it's time to grow up, too. A sweet and subtle story, with two huggable animals that children will embrace.

Life's Little Lessons: No More Biting

Bernette Ford, Illustrated by Sam Williams

It's Billy Goat's first day at school, and he feels lost and lonely. Even though he really wants to join in the fun and games, he just doesn't know how. Billy Goat gets so frustrated that he even bites Piggy, Lambkin, and Bunny! But with a little gentle guidance from sympathetic Ducky, he learns that teeth are for biting food—not for biting your friends.

Life's Little Lessons: No More Hitting

Bernette Ford, Illustrated by Sam Williams

Little Hamster is very upset! None of his friends will let him join in any of their games. That's because when Little Hamster gets mad, he hits HARD—and that hurts. Will he learn how to play nicely? This gentle, endearing story helps toddlers understand why it's so much better—and more fun!—to treat others with kindness and respect.

Life's Little Lessons

Diverse and inclusive group of children experiencing first time traumas and how to cope with them by sharing, friendship, and understanding. Title themes include; Yelling, Germs, Mealtimes, Sharing, Bedtime and Separation.

Amber Stewart grew up in rural Dorset, England, and escaped as soon as she could to study Russian literature at the University of London. However, she never got over her childhood joy of reading Winnie-the-Pooh and—since graduating many moons ago—she has enjoyed an ongoing career in children's publishing, as well as her own writing career. Ironically, Amber now lives in rural Northamptonshire with her family and other animals, including a big gray horse and a small gray dog.

Sandie Sonke is a Southern California native and a Cal State University Fullerton grad with a degree in studio art. She is a freelance illustrator, wife, and mom to two sweet and silly kids who inspire her daily.

Wherever Louis goes, a big, rumbling, gray cloud of noise goes with him. His response to everyday challenges is to shout, causing his friends to play on the other side of the playground. One day, a new girl called Serenity comes to school. Serenity has a sunny smile, and she teaches Louis how to use his words nicely.

EDUCATIONAL—This series of 6 picture books aimed at ages 3-6 helps and guides the child and adult carer through the trickier moments of preschool life.

FUN—Full of humor and empathy by an experienced preschool author.

VIBRANT ARTWORK—The contemporary artwork is zinging with color and really brings the characters to life.

Serenity is very good at sharing things. She is happy to divide the play clay or the paint pots to share with the other kids at kindergarten. But when her mom has a new baby and the new baby shares her space and—more importantly—her mom’s attention Serenity finds it much harder to share. She shares her fears with her mom, and feels much better, realizing that there is more than enough love at home to go around.

Would you dare put a diaper on a bear? Or a flamingo or a rhinoceros! Not that would simply be preposterous. This lighthearted tale highlights the absurdity of diapers as seen through the eyes of a child.

Lillias Kinsman-Chauvet has a postgraduate degree in graphic design from University of the Arts London. She spent most of her time in their letterpress and screen-printing studios. She now lives near Glasgow, Scotland.
