Nothing is sweeter than betrayal - except when you break yourself in the process ...

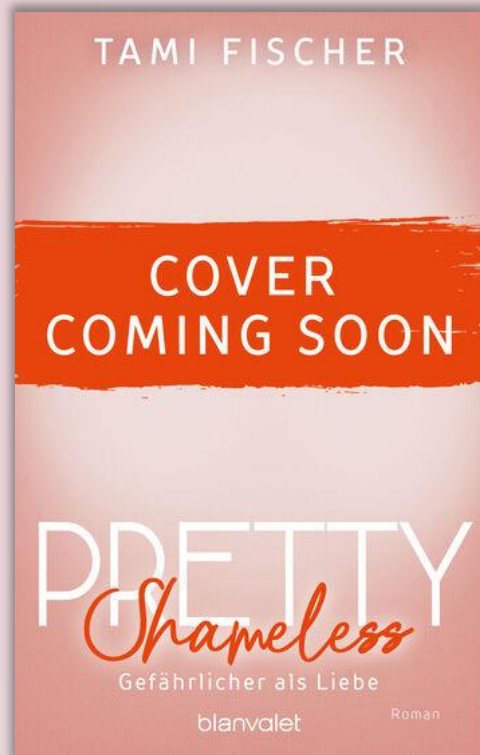

After everything Sarah's experienced in New York, she doesn't know who to believe anymore. She can't even trust Monroe, or her twin sister Payton. To top it all, she's starting to see her neighbour Holden as more than just a friend. In order not to endanger her plans for revenge, she decides to carry on playing the high-society clique's unscrupulous games. Little does she know that someone's hot on her trail, threatening to reveal her true identity – and worse...

Nothing is more dangerous than love - especially when it's not just hearts that are at stake ...

Sarah has risked a lot to protect her twin sister Payton from the machinations of the elitist clique. But the price is high: Monroe no longer trusts her, and Holden also turns his back on her. Caught in a web of lies and manipulation, it is now Sarah who must be rescued. But when it comes to light who is really pulling the strings in the background, all help seems too late ...

Tami Fischer was born in 1996 and lives in Hesse with her family and two lazy (but cute) cats. The trained bookseller is the author of several SPIEGEL bestselling novels, works as an audiobook narrator alongside her writing and loves to spend her free time travelling, reading big books, eating good food or having a series marathon. She also enjoys chatting with her many readers on Instagram and TikTok and sharing insights into her creative everyday life.
