Art&Kö was formally born in January 2021 as a branch of the Ute Körner Literary Agency, with forty years of history. We are interested in illustration as a fundamental part of children's literature, but not only of it.

The experience that gives us being one of the leading agencies in our territory in children's and youth literature, together with the passion we feel for illustration, has made us naturally bet on the representation of illustrators.

We want to accompany them in their careers globally with care, attention, dedication and time. That is why we want our portfolio to be manageable in number, to be mainly made up of Km0 illustrators, with whom we can have a close, direct and transparent contact. This is how we understand our work.

Eliana GUTIÉRREZ

She studied advertising and public relations. She spent 14 years working in the advertising industry before transitioning to a career in illustration.
