THIS TIME OF YEAR: A NEW PICTURE BOOK SERIES!

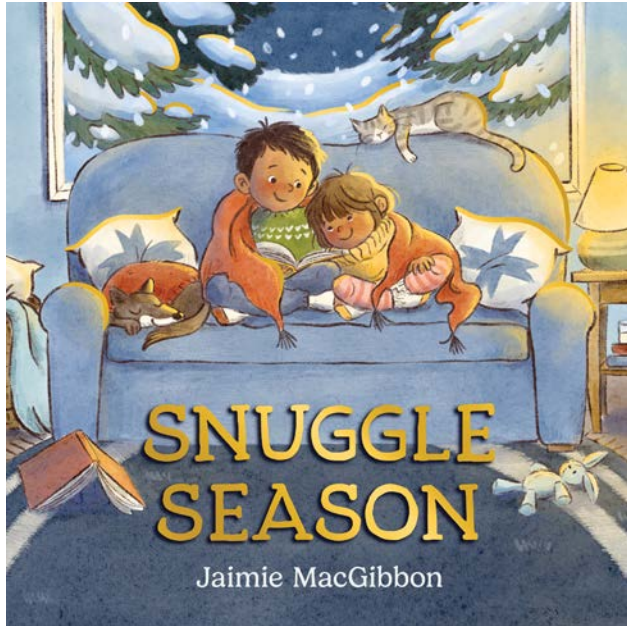

About the books

Embrace the rhythm of the seasons with this celebration of the best each time of year has to offer: Snuggle Season, Growing Season, Swimming Season, and Sweater Season.

Some books focus all their seasonal attention on holidays and their respective traditions, rituals, and preparations. Others work to shape young readers' understanding of months and calendars and how the seasons connect with so many other aspects of our natural world. Snuggle Season and the subsequent books highlight the cozy daily rituals that mark our lives, and especially children's lives. In Snuggle Season delight in the coziness of winter! In Growing Season, celebrate the wonders of spring! In Swimming Season, dive into the joys of summer! In Sweater Season, embrace the crisp, cool days of autumn!

JAIMIE MACGIBBON is a children's book author and illustrator living in the mountains of British Columbia, Canada, where she gets to experience the full range of seasons. From waist-deep snow, to mud and blossoms, to scorching summers and golden autumns, Jaimie looks forward to celebrating each new season with her family. This is her author-illustrator debut.

Snuggle Season

By Jaimie MacGibbon

Curl up with a soft blanket and hot cocoa to read this cozy, wintry picture book—the first in a new series capturing the simple joys and daily rituals of each changing season.

Can't get out of bed snuggles, curled up by the fire snuggles, waiting for the baking snuggles, and cuddled round a book snuggles: delight in the coziness of winter with Snuggle Season!

A simple but magical day unfolds as two siblings wake up to chilly temperatures and falling snow, taking the opportunity to snuggle up in bed, eat warm oatmeal for breakfast, play outside in a snowy fort, and sit by the fire with their animal friends.

Featuring Jaimie MacGibbon's warm, rhythmic text and inviting illustrations, Snuggle Season highlights the memorable daily rhythms of childhood—and through them, sweet assurances of love—that emerge as the seasons shape our lives. This is a timeless read-aloud sure to become a family favorite each year when Snuggle Season rolls around.

Swimming Season

By Jaimie MacGibbon

Splash into summer with a picture book about joyful seasonal rituals!

Warm sand, splashing water, and sunny weather: it's time for Swimming Season! An ode to the magic of endless summer days, Jaimie MacGibbon's rhythmic text and joyful illustrations celebrate the best that summer has to offer.

Swimming Season is the second book in a timeless new series about the memorable daily rhythms of childhood—and through them, sweet assurances of love—that emerge as the seasons shape our lives.

A pitch-perfect read-aloud, this story is sure to become a family favorite each year when the temperatures rise.

A NEW EARLY READER SERIES FOR AGES 4-8!

The Princess in Black meets Monsters, Inc. in this whimsical, zany illustrated early chapter book series about an unlikely friendship between a glittery monster, Zoomi, and her new imaginary friend—a human named Zoe. This topsy-turvy series will gently explore life’s first big transitions—like friends moving away, new siblings, and the loss of a pet—with humor, heart, and magic.

In Zoomi and Zoe and the Tricky Turnaround (June 2025), Zoomi and Zoe each navigate tricky friendship dynamics as old friends move away and they get to know each other in this new world.

In Zoomi and Zoe and the Sibling Situation (August 2025), there are more changes for the new friends: Zoe is going to be a big sister, and Zoomi’s family is welcoming a new baby, too!

COREY ANN HAYDU is the author of many critically acclaimed middle grade and young adult novels, including Eventown, Lawless Spaces, Ever Cursed, and One Jar of Magic. She is also the author of the Hand-Me-

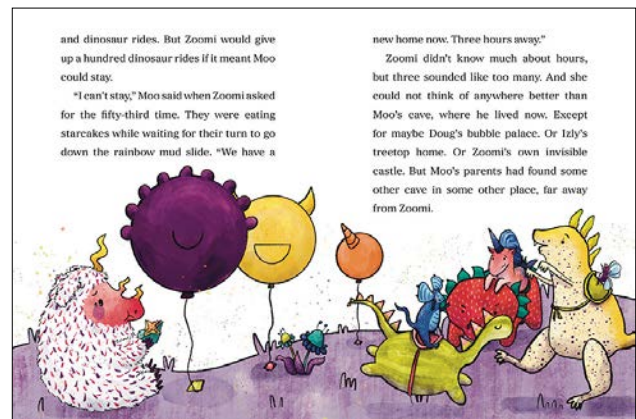

Down Magic chapter book series and the upcoming picture book A Place for Feelings. Corey is a graduate of NYU’s Tisch School of the Arts and The New School’s Writing for Children MFA program, and a faculty member of the Vermont College of Fine Arts’ MFA in Writing for Children and Young Adults program. She lives in Brooklyn with her husband and two young daughters.

ANNE APPERT is a storyteller who uses whimsy and humor to inspire and connect with readers on their own journeys toward becoming their most authentic selves. Anne went to the Fashion Institute of Technology for a BFA in illustration with a minor in English so they could bring their stories to life. Their first book was Blob, a picture book about being yourself. Their second book, What If You Wish?, is a picture book about the power of perseverance and wonder. Anne hopes to inspire all kids through fun and imaginative storytelling to dream big and love themselves. You can visit Anne at anneappert.com.

Chapter 1

There was one thing Zoomi loved: parties. And there was one place Zoomi didn’t want to be: Moo’s party. Not because Zoomi didn’t like Moo. In fact, Zoomi loved Moo. Moo was Zoomi’s best friend. Which is exactly why Zoomi didn’t want to be at his going away party. There were starcakes and a cloud house and dinosaur rides. But Zoomi would give up a hundred dinosaur rides if it meant Moo could stay.

“I can’t stay,” Moo said when Zoomi asked for the fifty-third time. They were eating starcakes while waiting for their turn to go down the rainbow mud slide. “We have a new home now. Three hours away.”

Zoomi didn’t know much about hours, but three sounded like too many. And she could not think of anywhere better than Moo’s cave, where he lived now. Except for maybe Doug’s bubble palace. Or Izzy’s treetop home. Or Zoomi’s own invisible castle. But Moo’s parents had found some other cave in some other place, far away from Zoomi.

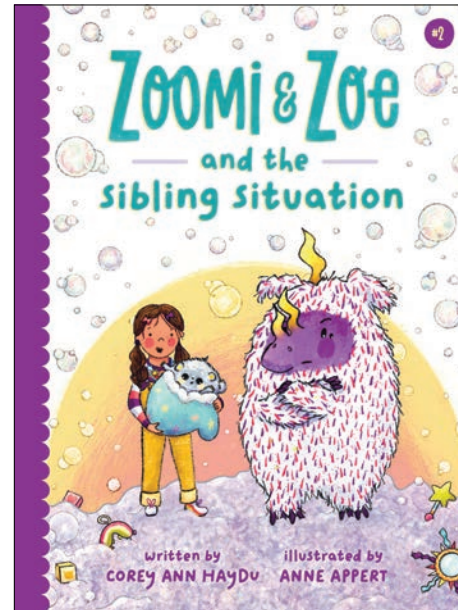

Zoomi and Zoe and the Tricky Turnaround

By Corey Ann Haydu, illustrated by Anne Appert

Zoe loves routine, her stuffed rhino Zoomi, and her best friend Kyla. When Kyla moves away, Zoe feels alone. Until somehow, she's transported to a magical new world with just one sort-of-familiar face: Zoomi, who is suddenly very much real.

Zoomi loves adventure, zooming, and her best friend Moo. In her world, life is full of happy surprises, but one ritual is certain: when something hard happens, she'll have Tricky Turnaround. And when she does, a Happy Helpful Human from the "real" world will arrive to help her through it.

But when Zoe arrives, she doesn't seem very happy. Or helpful. Or interested in the party Zoomi threw for her—complete with toothbrushes and a rainbow mud slide. In fact, Zoe may be navigating a Tricky Turnaround of her own. Can Zoomi and Zoe come together to help each other with the trickier parts of growing up, like saying goodbye to friends and making new ones?

Zoomi and Zoe and the Sibling Situation

By Corey Ann Haydu, illustrated by Anne Appert

The second book in the series brings more changes for the new friends: Zoomi and Zoe are both going to be big siblings!

Zoomi and Zoe were proud to conquer their first Tricky Turnaround together . . . but the transitions keep coming! This time, Zoomi's mom brings home a new baby, who is—in Zoomi's humble opinion—very boring, and kind of rude. Meanwhile, Zoe's dads have a wonderful surprise: Zoe is going to be a big sister, too! But Zoe's new brother doesn't seem to like her very much. Why does he keep crying when Zoe is around?

Fortunately, Zoomi and Zoe have a plan: Baby School! With help from Izly and Doug, these unlikely friends are positive they can teach their new siblings how to be better babies—starting with how to sing the alpha-bing, and how to appreciate their big sisters. But teaching Baby School isn't as easy as it sounds. Can Zoomi and Zoe come to terms with the changes in their families, and even learn a thing or two about these loud, smelly creatures along the way?

Enter through the Pineapple Portal to join Zoomi and Zoe in their second adventure, and keep an eye out for the other books in this zany, hilarious new series for emerging readers: The Tricky Turnaround (book one), and Zoomi and Zoe and the Camp Catastrophe coming June 16, 2026.

A Spoonful of Time

By Flora Ahn

“Full of twists, this middle grade story is a heartwarming mix of food and family.”—Kirkus Reviews

When You Reach Me meets Love Sugar Magic in this unforgettable middle grade novel where time travel, family recipes, and family secrets collide.

Maya’s grandmother, Halmunee, may be losing her memory, but she hasn’t lost her magic touch in the kitchen. When she serves salty miyeok-guk or sweet songpyeon, her stories about Korea come to life for Maya.

Then one day, something extraordinary happens: one delicious bite transports Maya and Halmunee into one of Halmunee’s memories. Suddenly they’re in Seoul, and Halmunee is young.

This is just the first of many secrets Maya will uncover: that she and her grandmother can travel through time. As Maya eats her way through the past, her questions multiply—until a shocking discovery transforms everything she thought she knew about family, friendship, loss, and time itself.

Brimming with heart and interspersed with seven family recipes that readers can make themselves, this is a story to savor by rising Korean American author Flora Ahn.

A Brush with Magic

By Flora Ahn

“Fantastical elements are seamlessly woven into this engaging, entertaining story A universal coming-of-age tale becomes extraordinary through an encounter with Korean folk magic.”

—Kirkus Reviews, ★ starred review

A heartfelt, magical middle grade adventure—inspired by Korean folklore and set in modern-day Seoul—about sisterhood and belonging, perfect for fans of Kelly Yang and Janae Marks.

It’s finally summer break, and twelve-year-old Yumi is headed to Korea with her older sister, Minji, for the very first time. She can’t wait to explore the city of Seoul together—but Minji has other plans. The moment they land, Minji ditches Yumi to hang out with their cousins, who are more fashionable, better at soccer, and all-around cooler than Yumi. Lost and alone, Yumi is stuck at home painting with her grandfather.

Everything changes when she finds an intriguing ink brush in a neighborhood art shop—and she accidentally summons a creature straight out of her grandfather’s retellings of Korean fairy tales. With a new friend by her side and an ink brush that has the power to bring anything she paints to life, Yumi feels unstoppable. From bustling street markets and ancient palaces to riding the subway, Yumi and her friend explore everything Seoul has to offer.

But when the magic takes a dark turn, Yumi must dig deep to hear her own voice and protect the family she loves—even if they don’t always understand each other.

FLORA AHN is an attorney by day and an author and illustrator by night. Her work includes a children's chapter book series, Pug Pals (Scholastic), and an Audible Original, The Golden Orchard. Raised in California by her Korean immigrant parents, Ahn lives in Virginia with her two pugs and practices law in Washington, DC.

Hunters of the Lost City

By Kali Wallace

“Reminiscent in feel to Kelly Barnhill’s The Girl Who Drank the Moon, this lovely fantasy introduces a complicated, brave, and believable heroine. . . . An absolute delight.”
—Kirkus Reviews, starred review

Packed with shocking twists, frightening monsters, and dark magic, this is a page-turning fantasy adventure for middle-grade fans of Holly Black and Tamora Pierce.

Twelve-year-old Octavia grew up believing the town of Vittoria was the only one left in the world. The sole survivors of a deadly magical war and plague, the people of Vittoria know there’s no one alive outside the town walls—except the terrible monsters that prowl the forest.

But then the impossible happens: Octavia meets another girl beyond the walls, someone who isn’t Vittorian. Everything she’s ever believed is thrown into question, and there’s no going back.

In her quest for the truth, Octavia discovers a world full of lies, monsters, and magic. She’ll have to use every scrap of her skill, wits, and courage to uncover what’s real about Vittoria and the rest of the world.

The Secrets of Underhill

By Kali Wallace

An eleven-year-old apprentice fights to save an ancient grove of magical trees that hold the key to her community’s survival in this page-turning fantasy adventure. Perfect for middle grade fans of Kelly Barnhill and Jessica Townsend.

Nick Sixsmith has spent her whole life on the road. The daughter of a traveling arborist, she moves with her mother from town to town, caring for the ironwood groves the communities rely upon. When a dangerous blight takes hold of these magical trees, they must journey to the city of Mistwood—her mother’s hometown—for answers.

Nick can’t wait to explore the prosperous city of Mistwood and all it has to offer: bustling markets and workshops, neighborhoods built under a roaring waterfall, and the vast ancestral grove of ironwood trees. But dark secrets simmer beneath the surface as people start to disappear and tensions rise in the city.

As the mystery grows, Nick and her new friends from Mistwood must follow the trail where it leads them: underground, to a strange, enchanting world called Underhill. Only there, among the roots of the ancestral grove, will Nick find a way to save her new home and the ironwood trees.

This immersive fantasy adventure combines vivid world-building with timely themes of environmentalism, and young readers will be riveted until the final page.

KALI WALLACE is the author of books for children and adults, including City of Islands, Shallow Graves, and Salvation Day. She lives in Portland, Oregon.

Despite the bungled launch, the rocket was flying faster and higher than they ever could have hoped. Which was the problem. Instead of going straight up and coming straight down, the bottle, weighted down by its unintended cargo, was arcing to the right. As it plummeted to earth again, it was headed for the trees on the edge of the field.

Nick started running after it. "If it lands in the top branches we'll never get it down!"

"Don't freak out," Tesla grumbled. She took a quick test-suff of her hair and grimaced. "It's not going fast enough to go as far as . . . oh."

The rocket zipped over the trees and landed with a little hollow thud on the wrong side of the tall fence surrounding the Old Whoever Place.

"Oh, no," Nick moaned as he trotted up to the fence. He put his hands on the crisscrossing wires and stared forlornly at the Albert and Martha Holt. "Should I climb over and get it?"

"Go for it," Tesla said. "And for the next launch, you get to pour the stink-water into the . . . Nick, look out!"

Warren the 13th Series

A strange-looking kid with a heart of gold, fastidious orphan Warren has one dream: to restore his family's creepy old hotel to its former glory. But to do that, he has to contend with mysterious visitors, secret codes, hidden maps, weird creatures, and angry witches. Luckily Warren has friends to help him, including a witch-in-training, a circus strongman turned chef, a reclusive professor, and a friendly monster named Sketchy.

“An engaging mystery to unravel, with a few nice twists and surprises along the way.”

—New York Times Book Review

Warren the 13th and the All-Seeing Eye

A beautifully illustrated, action-packed middle grade adventure in the spirit of Edward Gorey and Lemony Snicket.

Warren the 13th is the lone bellhop, valet, groundskeeper, and errand boy of his family's ancient hotel. The strange, shadowy mansion is full of crooked corridors and mysterious riddles—and it just might be home to a magical treasure known as the All-Seeing Eye. But if Warren is going to find the hidden treasure, he'll need to solve several other mysteries first: What is the strange creature lurking in the hotel boiler room? Who is the ghostly girl creeping around the garden's hedge maze? And why is the hotel's only guest covered in bandages?

Growing into You!

An Inclusive, Shame-Busting, Get-Real Guide to Your Changing Body and Mind

By Melissa Pintor Carnagey; Illustrated by Brianna Gilmartin

For tweens of all gender identities ages 10 to 14 and their trusted caregivers, Growing into You! is a shame-busting, interactive guide to puberty and changing bodies by the founder of Sex Positive Families.

Body hair. Changing friendships. Weird fluids. The tween years can be awkward and confusing—but with enough information and an open mind, you can thrive!

Growing Into You! has all the facts you're looking for and more. For example, did you know that . . .

- Voice changes happen to people of all genders?
- Breast buds aren't just something girls develop?
- Sleep actually helps your body grow bones and muscles?
- Everyone has their own unique relationship to gender?

By the founder of Sex Positive Families, a groundbreaking education platform dedicated to shame-free, inclusive conversations around bodies and sexuality, Growing Into You! is a modern primer on the puberty years for Generation Alpha.

Packed with essential information, conversation starters, reflection exercises, surprising facts, and fun activities, the book contains plenty for you to take into the real world with you.

This valuable resource for families aims to change the conversation around puberty, from a trailblazer in sexual health education and the founder of the popular Sex Positive Families online platform.

MELISSA PINTOR CARNAGEY, LBSW (she/they) is a Black, Puerto Rican, and Mexican sexuality educator and licensed social worker who believes that all children deserve holistic, comprehensive, and shame-free sexuality education. Her professional experience spans 15 years in the field of sexual health. She is the creator of the Growing Into You!™ virtual puberty education program, and is based out of Austin, Texas.

BRIANNA GILMARTIN enjoys creating work that is full of silly and imaginative fun and reflective of quieter moments of life, as well as more emotional work that studies the human condition, human emotions, and our need for human connection.

The Worst-Case Scenario Survival Handbook For Kids

By David Borgenicht and Justin Heimberg; Illustrated by Wenke Kramp

Erupting volcanoes. Ravenous sharks. Pooping in the woods.

The great outdoors is a weird, wonderful, and scare-your-pants-off terrifying place. Whether you're freezing in the Arctic, escaping quicksand in the jungle, or befriendng tarantulas in the desert, this guide has you covered. (Figuratively, not literally. We didn't have the budget for a blanket-sized book.)

Bust this guide open and discover step-by-step instructions for surviving the most extreme situations that Planet Earth can throw at you. Learn how to:

- Dodge a charging rhinoceros
- Ride out a sandstorm
- Navigate by the stars
- Build a snow cave
- Cross piranha-infested waters
- And much more!

Yeah, the outdoors can be scary, but you've got this indispensable, laugh-out-loud survival guide. So what are you waiting for? Get out there!

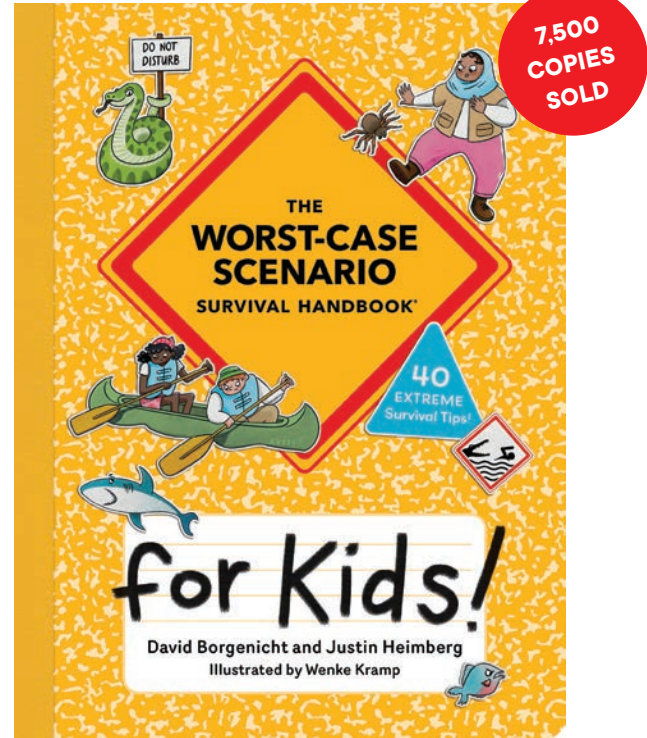

DAVE BORGENICHT, is the coauthor of all the books in the Worst-Case Scenario Survival Handbook series and the founder of Quirk Books. He knows how to float on quicksand, jump from a moving car, and properly groom a gorilla. He lives in Philadelphia.

JUSTIN HEIMBERG defines the word extreme. He is extremely cautious and wary. He is an extreme sleeper and an extreme television watcher. On the rare occasion when Justin is not being extreme, he writes books and films. He lives in an extreme suburb in Maryland.

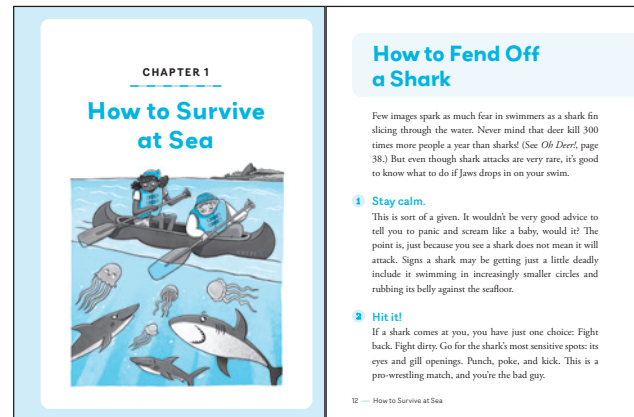

WENKE KRAMP is an illustrator from Berlin, Germany.

A 2024 NATIONAL PARENTING PRODUCT AWARDS WINNER

The best-selling (and wildly hilarious) Worst-Case Scenario series is back with 40 extreme survival tips for kids ages 8 to 12, great for adventurous fans of the I Survived series.

Wonder Women: 25 Innovators, Inventors, and Trailblazers Who Changed History

You may think you know women's history pretty well. But have you ever heard of:

- Alice Ball, the chemist who developed an effective treatment for leprosy—only to have the credit taken by a man?
- Mary Sherman Morgan, the rocket scientist whose liquid fuel compounds blasted the first U.S. satellite into orbit?
- Huang Daopo, the inventor whose weaving technology revolutionized textile production in China—centuries before the cotton gin?

Smart women have always been able to achieve amazing things, even when the odds were stacked against them. In Wonder Women, author Sam Maggs tells the stories of the brilliant, brainy, and totally rad women in history who broke barriers as scientists, engineers, mathematicians, adventurers, and inventors.

Gay The Pray Away

By Natalie Naudus

“Achingly heartfelt and resoundingly beautiful. I need more books from Natalie Naudus ASAP!”

—Julie Abe, author of The Charmed List and Our Cursed Love

Valerie Danners is in a cult. She just doesn't know it yet. But when she stumbles upon a queer romance novel at the library, everything about her life—a fundamentalist Christian homeschooling group—is thrown into question.

And to make things even more complicated, there's a new girl in town. Riley is rebellious, kindhearted, and impossibly cool. As the two bond over being multiracial teens in their very white and very religious community, Valerie finds herself falling in love.

Soon Valerie and Riley are exchanging notes in secret and stealing kisses behind the church. But even as their romance blooms, Valerie knows that they're trapped. If Valerie wants a chance at writing her own story, she must choose between staying with a family she fears will never accept her or running away with the girl she loves.

NATALIE NAUDUS is one of the most beloved audiobook narrators working today. She has won an Audie award and nine Earphones awards and maintains a robust social media following. She lives with her family on a mountain in Virginia.

In this gripping queer YA romance perfect for fans of Casey McQuiston and Becky Albertalli, an Asian American teen longs to break free of the conservative cult she was raised in.

“Composed with equal parts sweetness, care, and stubborn queer perseverance.”

Stars, Hide Your Fires

By Jessica Mary Best

A sapphic sci-fi mystery for fans of Iron Widow and The Darkness Outside Us.

As an expert thief from a minor moon, Cass knows a good mark when she sees one. The emperor's ball is her chance to steal a fortune for herself, her ailing father, and her scrappy crew of thieves and market vendors.

Her plan is simple:

1. Hitch a ride to the planet of Ouris, the dazzling heart of the empire.
2. Sneak onto the imperial palace station to attend the emperor's ball.
3. Steal from the rich, the royal, and the insufferable.

But on the station, things quickly go awry. When the emperor is found dead, everyone in the palace is a suspect—and someone is setting Cass up to take the blame. To clear her name, Cass must work with an unlikely ally: a gorgeous and mysterious rebel with her own reasons for being on the station. Together, they unravel a secret that could change the fate of the empire.

Praise for Stars, Hide Your Fires

"Rich with inviting detail, this genre-blending adventure smorgasbord features socially conscious commentary regarding financial disparity and an intricate plot that's equal parts sci-fi, murder mystery, and fast-paced thriller. A sweet, gently played romance and a widely utilized, intersectionally diverse cast add nuance to Best's tantalizing debut."—Publishers Weekly, starred review

"Descriptive worldbuilding, inventive and gender-inclusive slang and symbolism, a vividly drawn cast, and fast-paced banter are joined by nonstop action and twisty revelations . . . a high-stakes murder-mystery science-fiction thrill ride; great fun."—Kirkus Reviews

Lycanthropy and Other Chronic Illnesses

By Kristen O'Neal

Teen Wolf meets Emergency Contact in this sharply observed, hilarious, and heartwarming debut young adult novel about friendship, chronic illness, and . . . werewolves.

Priya worked hard to pursue her medical school dreams at Stanford, but a diagnosis of Lyme disease during her sophomore year sends her back to her loving but overbearing family in New Jersey—and leaves her wondering if she'll ever be able to return to the way things were. Thankfully she has her online pen pal, Brigid, and the rest of the members of “oof ouch my bones,” a virtual support group that meeets on Discord to crack jokes and vent about their own chronic illnesses.

When Brigid suddenly goes offline, Priya does something out of character: she steals the family car and drives to Pennsylvania to check on Brigid. Priya isn't sure what to expect, but it isn't the horrifying creature that's shut in the basement. With Brigid nowhere to be found, Priya begins to puzzle together an impossible but obvious truth: the creature might be a werewolf—and the werewolf might be Brigid. As Brigid's unique condition worsens, their friendship will be deepened and challenged in unexpected ways, forcing them to reckon with their own ideas of what it means to be normal.

Praise for Lycanthropy and Other Chronic Illnesses

“At its core, the novel feels like a love letter to the internet communities that connect people; it's a reminder that friendships, both virtual and in-person, can save lives.”

—Maya Van Wagenen, New York Times

“Emotional, thoughtful, and a true testament to the power of friendship, Lycanthropy and Other Chronic Illnesses is a werewolf novel that will make you look at navigating illness, supernatural or not, in a whole new way. . . .”

—Locus Magazine

Dystopian from Anna Carey

A teenage girl's reality may not be what it seems in This Is Not the Jess Show, a riveting young adult thriller duology blending '90s nostalgia with a speculative hook that dissects our reality TV and influencer-obsessed culture. Perfect for readers of We Were Liars and One of Us Is Lying.

ANNA CAREY is the author of several books for teens including This Is Not the Jess Show, This Is Not the Real World, and the Eve trilogy. She lives in Los Angeles.

Miss Peregrine's Peculiar Children Series

Published by Quirk Books in 2011, Miss Peregrine's Home for Peculiar Children follows sixteen-year-old Jacob Portman as he journeys from a sleepy Florida suburb to a remote island off the coast of Wales. There he stumbles upon the ruins of Miss Peregrine's orphanage and discovers the shocking fate of the children who lived there long ago—and may live there still.

Miss Peregrine's Home for Peculiar Children was followed by two best-selling sequels, Hollow City and Library of Souls. All three novels are illustrated with dozens of vintage found photographs.

CHAPTER BOOKSZOOMI AND ZOE AND THE CAMP CATASTROPHE

by Corey Ann Haydu, illustrated by Anne Appert

Zoomi and Zoe are spending the summer at Camp GlumbleGlibble! While Zoe will only be away from earth for three looperos, or a few seconds in the human world, that's plenty of time to have the best summer ever with her best friend. Zoomi can't wait to show Zoe how to make friendship bracelets out of stars, and stay up late talking in their cabin that tells knock-knock jokes. But there are lots of Happy Helpful Humans at camp with their GlumbleGlibblers, and Zoe seems to have more in common with them than she does with Zoomi. Suddenly, Zoomi isn't sure of her place in GlumbleGlibble or with Zoe—and she definitely doesn't like feeling jealous or insecure. Can Zoomi and Zoe salvage the summer, and their friendship, after a big blowup?

MIDDLE GRADESHALLOW BAY #1: 16 STRANGE, SEMI-CONNECTED STORIES (PLUS 1 TOTALLY NORMAL ONE)

by Genevieve Eugenia Pherese

Welcome to Shallow Bay, a small town with big dreams! Founded in the past by a person, or possibly multiple people, Shallow Bay can't be contained to one spot on a map—because it lives in the hearts and minds of its lovely citizens. Additionally, it simply refuses to be mapped, even when asked politely.

Scary Stories to Tell In The Dark meets Wayside School in this oddball middle grade short story collection about the curious residents and strange occurrences of Shallow Bay—a town you may never want to leave, or may never be able to leave.

YOUNG ADULTYOU PIERCE MY SOUL

by Jessica Mary Best

In the utopian city of New Ionia, everyone gets a soulmate—and Zada can't wait for hers. Now that she's eighteen, it's her turn to meet her destiny with the help of Heartsong, an algorithm that chooses your perfect match for you.

Then Zada crashes into her soulmate, setting off their shared Heartsong, and the unthinkable happens: she feels nothing for him. But the Heartsong program doesn't make mistakes, and by the end of the night, Zada is engaged to a man she doesn't love.

Desperate for a way out, Zada turns to her beautiful, reckless, and utterly impossible former best friend Daphne. Together, the two embark on a quest for the truth that throws Heartsong – and their entire world – into question. As time runs out, Zada must find the courage to choose what she believes and who she loves.
