written by Maja Ilisch, illustrated by Laura Rosendorfer

Original Title: Prinzessin Floradora. Verflixt, verwünscht und voll verflucht.
ISBN: 978-3-401-60879-2

Princess Floradora can't quite believe her eyes when suddenly a wicked fairy turns up in her room and puts a curse on her. Whoosh! Out of the princess's head springs a pair of ram's horns. A princess with horns? That just isn't on! But hold on a moment. Actually the horns feel quite nice, and they'll be very useful for knocking down doors! Unfortunately, Floradora's parents take a different view and ship her off to Dark Forest Boarding School so that nobody else can see her. There Floradora meets other princes and princesses, all of whom have been cursed and locked away. So who is responsible for the curses? While they plan to escape, the children not only get to know their own strengths, but they also find real friendship and get help where they never expected it. Can the children free themselves from the spells that have been put on them – and do they actually want to do so? Or will they prefer to show the rest of fairyland what they are now capable of?

Good Fairy in a Bad Mood (Vol. 1). The Wishing Pearl Mission

written by Emma Flint, illustrated by Pernille Ørum

Original Title: Die gute Fee mit der schlechten Laune (1). Der Wunscherlen-Auftrag.
ISBN: 978-3-401-60828-0

Good fairies eat candy floss for breakfast, sprinkle glitter wherever they go, and spread joy to the world with their contagious, tinkling laughter. Sounds great, doesn't it? Not for Molli. Eating nothing but sweets? Boring! Stick to ALL the fairy rules? Snoring boring! And boredom puts Molli in a bad mood. The only thing to lift her mood is a little adventure. But on her first assignment in the human world, she stumbles from one mess to the next as she tries to help birthday boy Fabio make new friends – and her companion, Pepito the poodle, ends up in great danger!

My Picture Reading Book

- A story to read along age 5+
- Pictures replace nouns
- Including reading puzzles

The Book Bear series "My Picture Reading Book" is geared to children at preschool age. The nouns are replaced by pictures, so that even children who have not yet learned their ABCs can "read along". That makes them curious and wanting more. In addition, puzzles at the end of the book entice the children to talk about the story. After all, children who have plenty of opportunities to speak also learn to read faster.

MY SYLLABLES READING BOOK – BACKLIST

The Book Bear series with separation of syllables is directed to beginning readers in 1st Grade. The especially understandable reading units and short lines are ideal for learning to read. Highlighting the spoken syllables into dark blue/light blue helps the child to be able to read a word correctly and understand it. In addition, funny puzzles and questions about understanding stimulate the child to think about and talk about the stories. After all, children who have plenty of opportunities to speak also learn to read faster.

Squirrel & Bear Are Waiting for Christmas. 24 Stories to Read Aloud from the Winter Wonderland

written and illustrated by Andreas H. Schmachtl

Original Title: Hörnchen & Bär warten auf Weihnachten. 24 Vorlesegeschichten aus dem Winterwunderwald.
ISBN: 978-3-401-72325-9

A cold, northeast wind has brought the most wonderful time of the year to Squirrel's forest: winter, Advent, and, of course, Christmas! With a bit of luck, they'll be able to build snow squirrels and skate around on the frozen forest lake. And of course, Bear must come too. Because all kinds of exciting adventures await the two friends. Together, they form the Forest Decoration Service, create a seven-biscuit plan, and explore the mystery of Santa Claus. The 24 days of Advent pass in a flash, and a magical Christmas awaits all the forest creatures!

I Feel This, But What Do You Feel?

written by Marisa Hart, illustrated by Alexander Dietrich

Original Title: Das fühle ich, was fühlst du?
ISBN: 978-3-401-72251-1

Porcupine Pete would really like to spend the whole day (and the whole night) at home with his mummy. His socks itch, his toy railway has to be put back in his children's room, there's too much going on in the supermarket, and it's hard to fall asleep in the evening. And everyday life is made miserable by all the little monsters: Scratchilla, Gamespoiler, Makeameass, Muddlemind and, above all, Timegobbler. If only Mummy didn't have so much else to do, and would realize just how poor Pete feels when these little monsters attack him. But fortunately, Mummy does see what's causing him so much trouble, and in the end she finds ways to keep the little monsters at bay, so that Pete has time to focus on all the joys of everyday life.

Drei Zaubernüsse zu Weihnachten.

A secret magic garden is the home for tiny magical beings and friendly animals. Fritzi the Hazelnut Dormouse is one of them, and she lives here with lots of friends, including the owllet Kiss-Kiss.

It will soon be Christmas, but for some reason, the magical mood just doesn't seem to be there. There's still no snow, and the wonderful Christmas stars haven't even begun to twinkle. And so Fritzi sets out to ask the root runners and little marble people for their advice. If she can find three magic nuts, they will fulfil her longing and that of her friends – that Christmas should come at last!

Taro is Stella's animal lionheart or, to be more precise, tigerheart! He is always beside her to help when her fears become too great. Because it's quite normal to be afraid, and even Taro himself can feel fear. But he knows lots of tricks that will enable him to overcome his fears.

And it's not only Stella that he helps to find her own supername, to drive away monsters from under the bed, to feel big and strong even when Mummy isn't there, to stand up for herself in a quarrel, and to find new strength just when she starts to weaken. Taro offers simple tips to every reader, and so every child can also have their own superpower along with their own tigerheart to support them.

Sam the Ram & Friends. Sam the Ram Wants Another Story

written by Romy Pohl, illustrated by Marta Balmaseda

Original Title: Widder Willi. Widder Willi will aber noch eine Geschichte.

ISBN: 978-3-401-72237-5

There's always something Sam wants – whether he can have it or not! But he can often be a bit contrary, too stubborn, or get in his own way – and that's when he needs help from No Go Goat, his little ibex friend. His other friends, little mammoth Mimighty, and Dilly, the donkey, are also here to help, as well as Uncle Sasheep, who always has the coolest ideas. Together, they come up with some creative solutions, rewrite the rules, take proverbs literally or interpret idioms in their favour. With lots of hilarious misunderstandings and made-up words, they always find a humorous solution at the end of each story. And along the way, they learn important values such as friendship, helping each other, and sharing, all told in a light-hearted way.

Original Title: Widder Willi. Widder Willi will aber nicht schlafen! Ein (Nicht-)Mitmach-Buch
ISBN: 978-3-401-72231-3

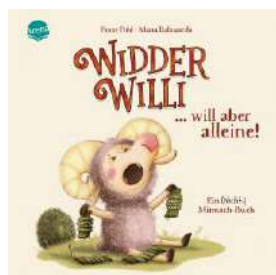

Sam wants his own way again – not what the grown-ups want!

Brushing teeth, putting on pyjamas, saying goodnight – and even if there's still time for Mum to read a story – booooring.

Go to bed? No way! Staying awake and playing is much more exciting. Sam needs someone to show him that going to bed can be cosy, and that even a little ram needs his sleep.

Little Sams will instantly recognise themselves in this warm-hearted story straight from everyday life. They will instinctively slip into the shoes of the grown-ups and, almost without noticing, help little Sam and themselves.
